Print staff to hit the heights in challenge

STAFF from a Cannock printing firm are hoping the public will get behind their intrepid bid to scale Britain's tallest mountains.

Paul Hyden, Simon Talbot, Shaun Pearce and Warren Jones – all from Avon Road-based Kazoo Print Solutions – will undertake the challenge on September 15.

They hope to raise £3,000 for Hope House Children's Hospice.

To help encourage donations they will print the names or logos of the first three donators of £100 or more on the front or back of their t-shirts, while the first two donations of £50 will go on their sleeves.

Training

Mr Jones, web developer at Kazoo, said training for the challenge was going well.

"We've been out on Cannock Chase and doing a lot of running for about three or four months," he added.

"We're ready for it now but the only thing we're worried about is the weather.

"It's a very worthy cause and hopefully we can raise a lot of money."

To donate visit www.justgiving.com/KazooPSGLtd or call Kazoo on 01543 466311.

He is set to take to the stage with his band on Friday October 5.

The actor – whose birthname is Bernard Jewry – will turn 70 later this month.

Tackeroo owner Geoff Summerfield, said: "Alvin Stardust does major theatres – he's still a big puller.

"He's doing a one-off event for us. He's not been here before, I'm really looking forward to it."

For tickets, priced £10, call 01543 423124.

Ex-Chronicle journalist Mark Allen at the Olympic Park

Carrying Torch for Paralympics

A FORMER competitor and an ex-Cannock journalist were among those carrying the Paralympic Torch before the start of the Games this week.

Martin Crutchley, of Cheslyn Hay, was one of the chosen few to carry the Torch for its relay around London ahead of the opening ceremony yesterday (Wednesday).

A data entry processor in the Newlife warehouse, in Cannock, Martin , aged 29, has dyspraxia – which impacts balance and co-ordination – and cerebral palsy.

The former Great Wyrley High School pupil was part of Team GB in 2008 in Beijing, finishing fifth in the shot put.

Mark Allen, a former Chronicle journalist, from Cannock Wood, was chosen to carry the Torch during its journey from Stoke Mandeville in Buckinghamshire – the spiritual home of the Paralympics – to the Olympic Park.

Transplant

Mark, aged 40, has cystic fibrosis and received a double lung transplant in 2005. He was nominated as a Torchbearer by his mum Maureen and Cannock Chase councillor Jodie Jones.

Mark, now a press officer for Halton Borough Council in Widnes, has experienced infection and rejection in his transplanted lungs and now has just 26 per cent lung capacity compared to an average man of his age and height.

He is the current British and European Transplant Games gold medal holder for table tennis.

Mark, who was carrying the Torch on its run from Lord's cricket ground in St John's Wood, said: "I am so excited to be carrying the Olympic flame and I am really looking forward to the Paralympics."

Progress made on new store for town

PROGRESS is being made on the new multi-million pound Tesco supermarket in Hednesford.

Work is forging ahead on the store, which will bring hundreds of jobs to the town and is expected to be completed by the end of the year.

The 85,000 sq ft structure is part of Hednesford's £50m transformation and builders started work on the site in June following Cannock Chase Council signing the contract with property developers St Modwen.

There will be a 640-space car park with a row of non-food shops, a community hall and shopping kiosk, along with a new bus stop.

Boost

Hednesford town councillor John O'Leary said it would be a huge boost to the area.

He said: "I think this development will have a profound effect on the other shops in the area."

Tesco is the second and final stage in the regeneration project, which has also included the building of four retail units facing Rugeley Road at Chase Gateway.

There will also be a community hall built to replace the Aquarius ballroom.

Tesco will create 300 jobs, with up to 100 going to the long-term unemployed.

Youths steal medication

TEENAGERS threatened a man and stole his bag containing prescribed medication. Police warn it could prove harmful if taken.

The man, in his 40s, was approached by five or six youths, all aged around 15 or 16, as he walked through Hednesford Park at 3.45pm on Thursday, August 23.

Two threatened the man with silver objects and stole a red canvas holdall containing Venlafaxin, Olnazapine and Zopiclone tablets and bottles of Fortisip drinks.

Anyone with information is asked to call Pc Malcolm Beeston on 101.

LITTERBUGS RUIN DOG WALK AREA

LITTERBUGS are spoiling a popular dog walking spot in Rugeley by dumping glass bottles and rubbish at the site, it has been claimed.

by Alex Homer

Users have raised concerns about Dinah's Knob, which is at the end of the Brereton Heritage Trail.

Visitors say the problem is so bad, they have now launched a Facebook campaign to get it cleaned it up. Groups of young drinkers gathering at the site and discarding their bottles have been blamed for the problems.

Parents

One online post from Neil Walker said: "What are the parents doing?

"Nothing, because most of them don't give a hoot what their children are up to, as long as it's not by their homes or in their back yards.

"They should be taken home and made to clean it all up along with their parents."

Betty Turley added: "It's true, it's like it every weekend. It used to be a place of natural beauty but it's now the local tip and breeding ground for the future."

Dog walker Kim Richards said her animals had been injured by the debris left on the ground.

"I am absolutely disgusted at the state of the top of Dinah's Knob," she said.

"I can't even take my dogs up there as one cut his foot."

The messages went up on the 'How many people on Facebook are from Rugeley?' Facebook page.

The heritage trail, which runs from Heather Close to Dinah's Knob, and the pathway leading to it from behind Heather Close are the subject of a continuing scheme of improvements.

Kind-hearted community members regularly visit the area to perform litter picks.

Volunteers from a Brereton Parish community interest group are also working on plans for Brereton Heritage Trail to provide a link between the community space in Brereton Green and the nature reserve at Brereton Heath.

The plan is for attractions to be signposted for visitors, including a tree trail which was started three years ago.

Hard hats off to wedding dance builders

Newlyweds Ammie and Adam with the dancing builders

TWINKLE-TOED tilers, point-perfect plasterers and balletic builders helped make it a wedding day to remember for a Rugeley couple.

Eight workers from Cannock firm Hickenbuild swapped their usual tools for killer dance moves when they performed a choreographed routine for colleague Adam Hicken as he wed Ammie Bradbury.

The group had spent weeks practising their routine, which started with a waltz and included some Beyonce moves, a bit of Dirty Dancing and, of course, the YMCA.

Among those to don high-visibility jackets and hard hats was managing director of Hickenbuild, Steve Hicken.

Guests

He said he wanted to do something to surprise now daughter-in-law Ammie and son Adam, who works for the company.

The routine received a rousing response from wedding guests at Hawkesyard Estate in Rugeley on Saturday.

The newlyweds, who met while at Cardinal Griffin RC High School in Cannock, had their first dance before the surprise act burst in.

Mr Hicken was joined on the dancefloor by plasterers Martin Hughes and Phil Collinge, Ammie's father Stephen Bradbury, apprentice Daniel Sheargold, tilers Chris Park and Ian Wilcroft and technician Bill Sheargold.

Girl guide duo enjoys voyage of a lifetime

TWO Penkridge teenagers sailed the high seas in a special Challenger Yacht voyage as part of a Girlguiding task.

Chloe Macaulay and Isobel Leroux, both 15, were part of an all-girl crew of guiding members from across the UK who rode the seas in a trip co-ordinated by the Tall Ships Youth Trust.

The seven-day leg saw Chloe, who is young leader of the 3rd Penkridge Guides, and Isobel, who is young leader of the Penkridge Rainbows, travel between Hartlepool and Holland before heading to Portsmouth.

The Challenger racing yachts are owned by the Tall Ships Youth Trust and have all been used in round the world yacht races.

It was chartered by Girlguiding North East England to give girls and young women the chance to experience life on the ocean. The girls had the chance to learn a range of new skills such as hauling ropes, hoisting sails up the 95ft mast, helming the 48 tonne yacht, navigation, night sailing and taking part in the ship's daily 'watch'.

Chloe said: "I learned so much about sailing. I'd really like to get into a national junior sailing squad."

Isobel added: "I love sailing and I thought this would be a great way to experience new aspects of it."

Crowds in a race to see Paralympic Flame relay

THOUSANDS of people turned out to welcome the Paralympic Flame in Cannock Chase.

The district was one of only four in the area to host the Flame celebration on Saturday and there was a huge crowd in Cannock town centre for the start of the Paralympic Flame relay.

Eight inspirational local residents carried the Flame from the town, through the park to Chase Leisure Centre in Stafford Road for a ceremony and an afternoon of celebrations.

Cannock Chase's Paralympic Flame ambassador Olivia Wilson, a 15-year-old horserider tipped for the 2016 Games in Rio, started the relay. Craig Cornwall, Christine Kilkenny, Andrew Hodgkinson, Paul Rhodes, Daniel Burnyeat, Jack Burnyeat and Tracy Tipton also carried the Flame, with town crier Peter Taunton making the announcements.

A ceremony was held at the leisure centre, with special guest Olympian David Moorcroft addressing the crowd.

The former 5,000m world record holder said: "Thank you to Cannock Chase for hosting the Paralympic Flame so wonderfully."

Cauldron

The Great Britain Disability Gymnastics Display Team showed off their skills and sports clubs showcased the number of inclusive sporting activities available across Cannock Chase.

Cannock Chase High School pupil Olivia had attended a cauldron-lighting ceremony in Trafalgar Square on Friday and brought the Flame back to Cannock Chase for the celebrations.

She said: "It's been brilliant to be involved in this and I've had such a great weekend."

Olivia and her family attended a special civic welcome for the Flame at Cannock Chase Council's Civic Centre in Cannock on Friday evening.

Council chairman Councillor Bob Todd said: "Olivia was a wonderful ambassador."

Councillor Christine Mitchell, the council's culture and sport leader, said: "It was a huge honour to host the Paralympic Flame. I was so proud of our Paralympic Flame ambassador and all of our Flame carriers – and I was also incredibly proud of this district."

Cash for cameras to target poachers

A CAMPAIGN to pay for spy cameras to catch wildlife poachers targeting farms and beauty spots in South Staffordshire has raised £860.

Faye Burton, of the Rural Policing Liaison Group, said enough had been raised for two cameras.

The appeal was launched last month after a deer was shot dead on Cannock Chase.

The dead deer was loaded into a vehicle off Penkridge Bank, near Etchinghill. A resident on a caravan site called the police after hearing three shots at about 1.30am.

Volunteers from Poacher Watch, part of the rural policing group, found a large pool of blood at the roadside.

The group now aims to raise a further £1,500 to buy two more-sophisticated cameras to install at blackspots and loan out to farmers.

Ms Burton said she was overwhelmed by the public response to the appeal. Donations from £10 up to £450 were received.

The organisation, which has no funding, was launched 13 years ago. To help, call 07973 665996.

Footballing knight opens new club facility

FA director Sir Trevor Brooking

FOOTBALL ace Sir Trevor Brooking will officially open Wyrley Juniors FCs' new clubhouse next week. The £1,150,000 facility at Long Lane includes changing rooms and four pitches.

Sir Trevor, a former England international and the FA's current Director of Football Development, will perform the official opening on Monday (September 3) at 10.30am.

The facility will allow Wyrley Juniors FC to run up to 16 football teams as well as provide club members and local residents with a quasi-village hall, which will also be used for training future football coaches.

The project was funded with the help of a £918,000 grant from the Football Foundation. Funded by the Premier League, The FA, and the Government via Sport England, the Football Foundation is the nation's largest sports charity. Since it was launched in 2000, the Foundation has awarded around 8,000 grants worth more than £420m towards improving grassroots sport.

Important

Sir Trevor said: "The opening of this facility is fantastic for Wyrley Juniors Football Club and the local community.

It is extremely important that youngsters have regular access to high quality facilities to develop their personal skills. The funding from the Football Foundation has made that possible for the youngsters here in Staffordshire."

Wyrley Juniors chairman Keith Hardy said: "The development took over 10 years of hard graft, determination and a lot of fundraising to turn a dream into a reality.

"The new facility will allow the club to grow further and allow young people of any ability to enjoy football in a safe environment."

Paul Thorogood, the Football Foundation's chief executive, said: "We are delighted that Wyrley Juniors FC and the local community will have access to these fantastic new facilities and commend the club and the Staffordshire FA for their hard work in making this happen."

Wreath-laying ceremony at war graves honours fallen

YOUNG people from Staffordshire and Germany have paid their respects to fallen soldiers in a wreath-laying ceremony at war graves in Cannock.

Teenagers from the county and Bremen have been tending to the graves for the past two weeks, helped by the Royal British Legion.

The ceremony for peace and reconciliation was the culmination of the project. A total of 26 young people, along with representatives from the organisation and Staffordshire County Council, took part.

The project has given the young people, all aged 16 and 17 and from all over Staffordshire, the chance to improve their language skills, build new friendships and learn more about the history of the Second World War.

Friendship

Derrick Ellison, chairman of the Hednesford Royal British Legion, said of the friendship project: "We wanted to be part of this friendship because it's important that we work together.

"It's wonderful to see young people coming here and working with each other, respecting the fallen but also enjoying being part of the project to maintain these graves."

County councillor Pat Corfield, cabinet member for culture and communities, added: "The war graves on Cannock Chase are incredibly significant, and it's important that they are maintained.

"The fact that a place of such sombre reflection can also be a place where young people come together, build new friendships and carry on a tradition that has stayed strong for the past 50 years is fantastic."

A PAL of the 1950s vintage reports a wedding at the weekend where he found a friend of the same age glumly contemplating the company. "I was wondering where the old folk were," he explained. "It's us, isn't it?"

IN BRITAIN, armed police protect him from intruders. In Afghanistan, the Gurkhas protected him from the Taliban. Unfortunately, in a hotel room in Las Vegas, there was no-one to protect Prince Harry from himself.

THE ONLY appropriate response to what the media coyly describe as the prince "cavorting" or "romping" in the nude is a long, world-weary sigh. The lesson of the past few hundred years, from the Prince Regent via the Abdication to the Charles and Diana fiasco, is that young princes of the Royal Family can be enormously popular and do a lot of good work. But the moment we make the mistake of expecting them to behave themselves, it always ends in tears.

NEWS from the front line in the row over extending Sunday opening. A reader who works in a big electrical store says he earns the minimum wage and gets no more for working on Sundays than any other day. If he asks to opt out of Sunday working, he is quite likely to be penalised through the clause in his contract which says he must be prepared to work for any branch within a 25-mile radius. The penalty for turning down a six-hour Sunday shift could be a nine-hour weekday shift miles from his home and up to three hours' travelling per day. So he "volunteers" to work on Sundays. I am sure not all stores treat their employees like this but if you still cling to the belief that Sunday shopping is wonderfully liberating, it's a story worth bearing in mind.

UNGALLANT statistics of our time. Shopping online for after-shave, I found 13.6 million references to Old Spice, and 238,000 of them mention Geri Halliwell.

UNINTENDED consequences. Health campaigners believe that selling cigarettes in plain packaging with a health warning and a grisly picture of a tumour on the carton will make people give up smoking. But supposing, as a Daily Telegraph correspondent suggests, smokers take up the old custom of transferring cigarettes from the carton to a stylish silver cigarette case? At a stroke, smoking becomes more chic than ever.

FIRST, the University of Ulster offered places to 370 would-be engineering students. Then someone realised it only had 180 places and the offers were promptly withdrawn. Then the engineering department decided that, after all, it could fit 370 into 180. Wonder what the maths department is like.

Cows play vital role in protecting newts

COWS from South Staffordshire College are playing a vital role in providing a suitable home for a protected species.

The cattle, from the Rodbaston campus in Penkridge, will keep down the grass at a site in Four Ashes, near Gailey, to provide a permanent breeding ground for great crested newts.

The college was asked by Veolia Environmental Services to help establish the three-acre site as part of the conditions of the company's 25-year contract with Staffordshire County Council to construct a recycling centre at Four Ashes. The college has loaned four animals in order to keep down the vegetation and provide a suitable home for the newts.

The cows, delivered by farm manager Jon Giles, are now grazing happily.

Meanwhile, three cattle will soon start grazing on a new patch of heathland at Chasewater Country Park.

Three Limousin/Dutch Holstein crosses are settling in well to their new home on Beachy Heath. Councillor Alan White, Lichfield District Council's cabinet member for development services, said: "As it is home to many rare plants and animals, we have a duty to make sure Chasewater Country Park's areas of heathland are managed properly. Bringing back cattle to Chasewater is a great way to help us look after this Site of Special Scientific Interest."

"The presence of cattle does not mean the area is out of bounds to visitors. The footpaths through Beachy Heath are still open for everyone to use. However, we would ask visitors to keep dogs on leads and not to approach or feed the cattle."0

Properties sold off to clear Pritchard debts

A RAFT of property is being sold off by administrators in a bid to pay off the Hednesford-based Pritchard Group's £100 million debts, it has been announced

The group went into administration in April when the founder and chairman Fred Pritchard retired at the age of 69. He had played a key role in the regeneration of Cannock Chase for more than a third of a century.

by John Corser and Alex Homer

However, the empire, which employs 85 people, is continuing to operate with chief executive Charles Tippet at the helm.

The group owed Lone Star more than £100m when it first went into administration.

In a bid to pay off those debts, administrators said they had begun selling off properties in its portfolio.

Industrial, office, commercial and residential premises are all included.

Complete

Only part of the group has gone into administration. A further 16 companies continue to trade including its main arm and property side.

KPMG spokesman Zoe Shepherd said it was not yet clear how long the process would take to complete.

Current chief executive Mr Tippet said the group would continue to look at developments, while the sell-off brought in funds to tackle existing debts.

He said: "We have had a range of properties go to auction, from one-bed flats to industrial estates.

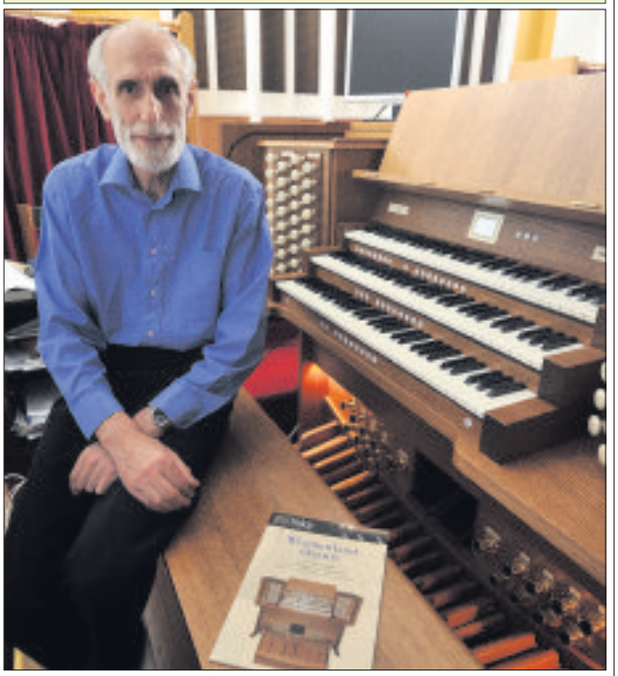
"It is a change because the Pritchard Group never traditionally sold sites but this is helping to generate funds. We have potential new development sites but we need to rationalise to be able to bring them forward."

Included in the group's portfolio is the 12-storey Ramada Hotel in Bridgetown, which can be seen from the M6 Toll.

Mr Tippet added: "We will continue to sign up new tenants and our hotel is in fact doing very well."

David Crawshaw, Rob Croxen and Richard Philpott of the accountancy firm were appointed on April 24 to Pritchard Group, Pritchard Construction Ltd, Pritchard Estates (Cannock) Ltd, Pritchard and Associates Ltd, and Pritchard Hotels Ltd, part of the borrowing group.

Church rings in the changes



Property steward Eric Brooks with the new Makin digital pipeless organ

A CHURCH in Cannock has ushered in the digital age by installing a new pipeless organ. St Stephen's Church, in Bideford Way, has bought the new instrument after the demise of the outdated Binns Fitton and Haley pipe organ.

The new three manual organ has been custom-built by Makin Organs in Lancashire with some 51 voices, which are the tones that it can play. One of the finest reputed organists in Britain has now been signed up to perform the opening recital – Professor Ian Tracey, Liverpool Cathedral and City Organist, will perform on Wednesday, September 26 from 7.30pm.

Refreshments will be available from the church hall after the recital. Tickets are £10, available from church stewards by writing to14 Gowland Drive, Cannock, WS11 1TG. Please enclose a second class stamp.

Christmas plea to fill shoeboxes with goodies

SHOEBOXES stuffed full of gifts for Christmas are already being collected at a Burntwood church.

The Shoebox Appeal is run at St Anne's Church, Chasetown, by the Christian Charity International Aid Trust.

The shoeboxes will be collected in St Anne's at the 10.15am Sunday Morning Service on November 4. For those who are unable to attend, the boxes must be at the church by November 3.

For a list of suggested items and what not to include, contact the parish office on 01543 686111.

Start of building work on new KFC

WORK has started on a new fast food restaurant in Hednesford, with bosses revealing it will open by the end of the year.

Builders are at work on the KFC in East Cannock Road which will create 40 new jobs. The work is going ahead on the site of a derelict industrial plant.

It is hoped other businesses will move on to the site after it has been cleaned up.

Councillor John Kraujalis welcomed the news. He said: "It will open up a section of ground to the rear of the restaurant for industrial use too so hopefully it will bring even more jobs to the area.

Industry

"The whole site isn't taken up by the KFC restaurant and we are hoping by this opening, other industry will be attracted to the area.

"The Globe across the road has also closed so we desperately need more life there."

Councillor Kraujalis added that it would be a win-win situation for the area in terms of industry and jobs for the future and the restaurant would be a popular addition to the town.

DFS store work is on schedule

CONSTRUCTION of a new £5.8m DFS store in Cannock has reached the halfway stage, with work now under way on the interior of the sprawling building.

The project is expected to be completed on October 26 ready for the Christmas rush. It is being built on two acres of land off the A5 at Longford Island.

Contractors, Sheffield-based J F Finnegan, say the work is on track.

Workmen have constructed the shell of the building and installed the exterior roof and wall cladding. Currently they are laying the concrete slab flooring and over the next two months will be putting in the dividing walls, windows and shop front before laying out the car park and service yards.

The tenants will then move in to install the furniture and interior fittings.

Around 30 jobs are expected to be created at the new site with another unknown firm also expected to be part of the same retail development once it is finished.

Mick Haragdon, project manager for new stores at DFS, said staff from the current store at the Linkway Retail park would be relocated to the new, bigger, 17,000 sq ft premises.

Darts fans have chance to take on ace Manley

Former PDC World Championship finalist Peter Manley

DARTS fans can take on Peter Manley at the home of Hednesford Town FC at the end of October.

The former PDC World Championship finalist Peter Manley, known as 'One Dart' will grace the Chase Suite at Keys Park from 9pm on October 24.

Manley has been on the darting scene for over 15 years and is one of the more colourful characters to have graced the oche, having become somewhat of a pantomime villain after failing to shake the hand of Phil Taylor following the 2002 World Championship Final. With his recognisable pink or flamingo styled shirt's Manley will no doubt be a hit with fans as he takes the stage, alongside MC Adie Mason. Manley will also give a talk on his career as a professional darts player.

Organiser Scott Smith said: "It should be an excellent evening with one of the more recognisable names from the world of darts.

"Hopefully the event will be supported by not only supporters of the football club but also those from the wider community."

Everyone who attends the evening will be put into a raffle in order to have a chance at taking on 'One Dart' while there will also be other opportunities to take to the oche throughout the night.

Tickets are £10 with VIP tickets priced at £15. These guarantee reserved seating and table service as well as the chance to meet and greet Manley.

For tickets, call Scott Smith on 07518 14480, emailing events@htfcsa.co.uk or by call into the Hednesford Town FC commercial office.

Campaigners give up fight against level crossing bridge

CAMPAIGNERS living near the site of a proposed £3 million bridge across a dangerous level crossing in Cannock Chase have given up their plans to fight it.

The objectors had criticised the two-lane bridge, which is designed to take up to 1,000 cyclists a day as well as horses and walkers. They said it was "too ugly" to be placed in the picturesque forest setting.

They also protested that the covered structure at Moors Gorse, off Marquis Drive, would overlook their gardens and disturb the wildlife.

A safer crossing has become necessary because of the introduction of a 15-mile mountain bike trail through the forest which has boosted cyclists to more than 3,000 at weekends. Now residents in two houses there have agreed to sell their homes to Network Rail, allowing the plans to go ahead.

Mother-of-two Wendy Emery, of Marquis Drive, said: "Our fight wasn't so much with Network Rail as with the Forestry Commission who designed the cycle trail across the railway track so close to our homes.

Challenged

"The level crossing moved from being 800th on Network Rail's list of most dangerous crossings in the country to the second most dangerous. We've challenged it but now we've decided to jack it in and go.

"This is a designated Area of Natural Beauty but this bridge will destroy wildlife habitats, not protect them."

Dozens of conifers were felled to make way for the 17ft bridge over the Rugeley to Hednesford railway track.

The existing level crossing is a designated public footpath across the rail line but was not designed for the number now using it.

Aussie ace keeps tunes ticking over

AUSTRALIAN organist Tony Fenelon will keep the music ticking along when he performs in Burntwood next month.

Fenelon, a Bachelor of Science, has a background in medicine and was one of the designers of the Australian pacemaker. In 2003, he received a Queen's Birthday Medal, the Commonwealth equivalent of the MBE.

He is the latest guest performer at Burntwood Music For All on Thursday, September 13.

Fenelon made a successful appearance at Burntwood Memorial Institute in 2009 and organisers are delighted to welcome him back. Playing a new Roland state-of-the-art Atelier organ, his concert at the Rugeley Road venue starts at 7.30pm.

Fenelon's diverse programme ranges from The Beatles to Bach and includes swing and ragtime as well as a classic Last Night of the proms-style finale

Tickets are £6 and are available at the door.

Hair today, gone tomorrow for Jasmin

Jasmin Carson, aged eight, gets ready to have her hair cut for charity. With her are her sister Kirsty Dowell, stylist Greg Davies, owner Christine Smith-Toon and stylist Nicola Cornwall at Teddy's hairdressing salon in Cannock

FOR many young girls, having long flowing locks is always a dream.

But for one Cannock girl, despite having beautiful long hair, she is getting ready to chop it all off – so a less fortunate child can benefit.

Eight-year-old Jasmin Carson has decided to have most of her 18-inch long hair cut off for a charity called the Little Princess Trust.

The group gives real-hair wigs, free of charge, to boys and girls who have lost their own hair through cancer treatment and other illnesses. Jasmin got the inspiration after watching ITV's This Morning programme and decided to tell her father Phillip that's what she planned to do.

Mr Carson, aged 37 from Cannock said at first he was reluctant.

"At first I didn't want her to do it, but how could I say no when she told me it was to help children who had cancer. There was no way I could say no. I am so proud of her," he said.

Jasmin, a pupil at the town's St Mary's RC Primary School, will be having her hair cut off at Teddy's on Walsall Road, Cannock on September 14.

So far she has raised £170 in sponsorship, but hopes to raise at least £350, which is the cost of making one wig for one child.

"If we could reach that target, that would be great as it would mean one child would benefit," he added.

For details and to sponsor Jasmin, visit www.justgiving.com/jasmins-hair

Couple facing prison over £2m debt fraud

Facing jail – Rugeley couple Basil and Amanda Rankine when they appeared on the Panorama programme in 2008

A HUSBAND and wife who netted £2 million by ripping off people struggling with debts are facing jail.

Basil and Amanda Rankine from Rugeley were last week convicted of fraudulently claiming they could help people desperate to sort out their finances by buying up their debts.

Amanda, aged 36, wept as the jury at Birmingham Crown Court returned a unanimous verdict on 14 charges following a seven-week trial. Her 46-year-old husband remained emotionless.

The couple , of Somsert Avenue, will be sentenced on September 17.

They claimed, through their Credit Card Killer company, to wipe people's debts in just two weeks. The firm, the trading name of Momentum Network Limited, was a specialist company that "purchased debt directly from consumers and commercial companies".

Blatant

But the so-called debt sales were not legally effective. It was described as a dishonest and blatant scam by investigators and a judge.

The Rankines even starred in a Panorama documentary in 2008, claiming to be able to cancel clients' credit agreements. The jury gasped as the court heard that Basil had been jailed for 12 months last November for contempt after continuing to run the business despite an injunction from Birmingham Traders Standards granted in April 2010.

Credit Card Killer claimed it could buy people's debts from them for the sum of £1. Clients were told their total debt would be transferred to Credit Card Killer and they would no longer be liable for it.

But this was done without the consent of the lender who would sometimes continue to chase borrrowers to recover the debts. In some cases, borrowers were even taken to court by their lenders.

Billy is the top dog

Sam Beeken, aged 10, with double award-winning Billy

THE most handsome dogs and talented pooches were crowned at a charity show in Penkridge.

Dogs and their owners from across Staffordshire flocked to EC Straiton & Partners Vets in Cannock Road as it hosted its first ever dog show. It was held to raise money for Hearing Dogs For The Deaf charity. Among those to win rosettes was Labrador Retriever Billy, aged three.

Not only did he scoop the most handsome dog award but he was also named best in show.

He was entered into the competition by his proud owners Sam Beeken, aged 10, of Bishops Wood, and his brother Adam, eight.

Their father Richard said: "We had a good day and it helped raise some money for charity. We were very proud of him."

Craftsman's pottery lots to go under the hammer

A SALE of works by one of the foremost figures in Staffordshire's pottery industry takes place next month.

The life and works of Minton master craftsman Alboin Birks will be going up for auction at Cuttlestone's in Penkridge on September 13.

In the early 20th century, Birks was a renowned figure in the local pottery industry. Now his pieces, along with personal letters, photographs and ephemera charting his life, are to go under the hammer.

Birks' Le Collier plate

Master

Pate-sur-pate, a French term meaning "paste on paste", was pioneered in the 1850s at France's Manufacture Nationale de Sevres. The technique was perfected by Marc-Louis Solon, who would become known as the master of the craft.

Sixteen lots, which have been consigned for sale by Birks's descendants, were part of his private collection and include examples of his finest pate-sur-pate work for Minton along with photographs of Alboin himself, some pencil sketches, believed to be self-portraits, and a drawing of a classical head.

Some of the works include a 'Le Collier' cabinet plate, circa 1913, decorated by Birks himself, which is estimated to fetch £300 to £500.

Auctioneer Ben Gamble said: "Not only will these lots appeal to collectors of Birks' work, but also to those with an interest in the pottery industry."

The Danilo was source of culture

I WOULD like to respond to Janice Weightman's reminiscences of the Rolling Stones gig at the Danilo Cinema, Cannock.

The show commenced with David John and the Mood, an excellent R/B band whose single Pretty Thing was recorded by the legendary producer Joe Meek.

Other artists that night were The Overlanders, The Barron Knights featuring Duke D'Mond, The Cyclones, Julie Grant, and Peter and Gordon, who closed the show's first half. Compere was Tony Marsh.

At this time Mick Jagger performed shaking several pairs of maracas and the group had just released their sixth single The Last Time which was Jagger/Richards first collaboration on vinyl.

For the local youth in those halcyon times The Danilo was our only source of culture. But, yes, Happy Days.

Further work on shared services delayed

CANNOCK Chase Council have released a fanfare notice telling us just how great sharing Building Control Services with Stafford Borough has been. This is great news and the hard work that the two respective council services have invested and professional way the officers involved have dealt with the amalgamation is credit to them.

The Shared Services initiative has been a success all round for Cannock Council not just with these services. I imagine it is now on course, overall, to save our Council Taxpayers over £1.2m without any loss of service level.

However this was not an initiative started or supported by the current Labour-led administration at Cannock for as soon as they took power one of their first actions was too halt any further work on the shared services programme. They are still apparently delaying further progress in this vital area of taxpayers' savings.

For instance, plans were on the drawing board for sharing Planning Control Services, a service which has many similarities with the successful Building Control Department and which even Cannock Council's economic development and planning leader Councillor Alcott now is lauding as "a more efficient, cost-effective service." It is estimated that bringing these two services together could save at least £150k a year.

Rolling Stones gig loud and energetic

IN RESPONSE to Janice Weightman's request for information about the Rolling Stones at the Danilo Cinema.

The show was compèred by Tony Marsh, one of the top compères of the day. The running order in the programme was: David John and the Mood; Tony Marsh; Julie Grant; Peter and Gordon followed by an interval; Duke D'Mond and the Barron Knights; The Overlanders – but these were replaced by Peter Jay and the Jay Walkers; Tony Marsh; The Rolling Stones. This was one of their first gigs. Mick was still at the London School of Economics.

The show was one of many held at the Danilo, other shows featured Cliff Richard and the Shadows, Joe Brown and his Bruvvers, Rolf Harris, plus many more.

Janice says it was loud. It was very loud and energetic. The Danilo was knocked down and Dunelm and Bar Sports now take pride of place. 'Oh Happy Memories.'

RE: Memories of Rolling Stones. I was at that concert and as well as the Stones and Peter and Gordon, there was a female singer called Julie Grant, if I remember correctly John Leyton, another group whose full name I cannot recall but it was something and the Diamonds.

Are 700 homes needed?

CAN someone please tell me why 700 houses plus retail buildings and yet another primary school will be needed on the Pye Green Road?

What happened to the development on the area by The Bridge, with the road that leads to nowhere or the area where Cannock Stadium once stood?

When my parents moved to Thornhill in 1967 we were surrounded by Green Belt only to find that this actually means nothing. Bit by bit the council took the title of Green Belt away from the areas where they wanted to build. They have built closer and closer into our Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Cannock Chase is a relatively small area and we are squeezing the life out of it with surrounding housing estates. Gone are the mornings of waking up to find wildlife in your garden and beautiful views. Do they really think that another 700 houses are needed??

A prayer for when things go wrong

WHEN nothing is right
When we are weary and lost
When clouds dull the sky
Help us to be still.

When our cries are unheaded
When no effort bears fruit
When the sun sets
Help us be still.

When love is over and
When hope is gone
When darkness covers the land
Help us to be still

For in being still
In refusing to 'panic or despair'
We shall come to know that God is there.

Suffering alongside and with us
Waiting to show us stepping stones
Through the swirling waters
And to help us sing a new song

Time for a change

NOW is the right time for change. Our MPs and councillors have very little idea of the needs of its electorate. With extremely high costs of rail fares, gas, electricity and fuels would more be done to reduce these costs if MPs were stopped from claiming all they use as expenses. Our councillors and ex-councillors speak of disastrous housing plans yet have never been in the position of having nowhere to live or consideration for the need of jobs. We all know that after consultations councillors rarely change their decisions, so why ask. As the world enters a phase never seen in many generations, we need a new direction for all.

BOILER SCRAPPAGE SCHEME IS BACK, GET A £400 VOUCHER FOR YOUR OLD BOILER

In 2010 the government ran a scheme in which domestic home owners could replace their expensive to run gas boiler for a new condensing boiler, this scheme was set up to help home owners with the initial cost of replacing the boiler plus helping the government in reaching its carbon emissions target.

The £400 voucher could be redeemed when replacing an old, inefficient central heating boiler for a new high efficient gas boiler.

APH Services Ltd of Rugeley have re introduced the Scrappage scheme for a limited time, Matt Clarke of APH Services ltd said "the £400 voucher is a great way for local home owners to replace their boilers during these hard economic times."

Vouchers will be given to the first 100 customers meeting the criteria so you are advised to inform family and friends ASAP.

A rated gas condensing boilers are 90% efficient and with the correct thermostatic controls can save you 30% on your gas bill, that's up to £350 per year in an average 3 bed house.

Pupils are celebrating best ever GCSE marks

PUPILS across the region have been celebrating their GCSE results – despite controversy over the marking of English exams following a record number of fails nationally.

Schools said they were "thrilled" with results. At Great Wyrley Performing Arts High School more than 72 per cent of pupils achieved five or more passes, with 20 per cent gaining 10 or more high grade passes.

At Cheslyn Hay Sport and Community High School, more than 70 per cent of pupils achieved five GCSEs A* to C for the fourth consecutive year.

Headteacher Nicky Crookshank said: "We are thrilled with this year's results."

Chase Academy students excelled at their GCSE exams

Kingsmead Technology College pupils celebrate

Notable

At Chase Academy, 95 per cent of students passed at least five GCSEs at grades A to C, with notable students including Joyce Du, who scored 10 A* among her14 exams, Zoe Leung, who achieved four A* and seven As and Thomas Larsen Landmann whose marks included three As, eight Bs and three Cs.

Many students achieved early GCSE successes, among them Year 7 students Warwick Smith Williams and Thomas Griffiths, who passed German and French respectively at the age of 12.

Results from Erasmus Darwin Academy in Burntwood were the first since its conversion, but were better than ever before.

A total of 67 per cent of students gained five A*-C grades including English and maths, significantly above the national average. Josh Baggott achieved eight A* and one A, while Molly Beardsmore's marks were six A* and four As. Principal Bernice Astling said: "I congratulate our students on their fantastic results. They knew we expected a great deal of them, and they have worked extremely hard to meet challenging target grades."

Year 11 students at Kingsmead Technology College in Hednesford achieved the school's best ever GCSE results with 98 per cent achieving five grades at A* to C. What can God do for you?

Friendship

What is it to have a friend?

A good friend is someone you can trust, someone who listens and someone who cares. Abraham, a faithful man, mentioned often in the Bible was called the Friend of God. Why? - Because he trusted in God, he listened to God and obeyed His commandments. God wants us to trust Him and to listen to His Son the Lord Jesus.

God says of Jesus, this is my beloved Son - HEAR HIM. If we listen to Jesus through God's word the Bible, then we shall become His friends. As Jesus said, you are my friends if you do whatever I command you. God can bring us into friendship with Jesus, which can be an everlasting friendship.

A friend loves at all times - Proverbs Chapter 17 verse 17

Elliot's on board to win prize for anti-bullying

A TEENAGER from Cannock has been rewarded for his tireless work to stamp out bullying.

Elliot Payne, aged 17, is a member of Staffordshire's Youth Action Kouncil (YAK) and a member of the youth parliament.He scooped the national Youth Onboard Award.

YAK chose Anti-bullying as one of its key priorities last year and delivered a number of campaigns to raise awareness of bullying and its effects on its victims.

Honour

He was elected to champion the campaign including, delivering workshops to raise awareness, developing a anti-bullying pledge that young people would sign up to and created a competition to design an anti-bullying flag which was flown from Staffordshire County Council's building in Stafford.

Elliot said: "It is an honour to be selected for this award. I am overwhelmed.

"Not only does this award recognise myself but the hard work of everyone involved to make the project a success.

"The project has now equipped young people in Staffordshire with the skills and resources to tackle the disastrous effects that bullying can have.

"The award also recognises the hard work of the youth workers, who gave young people across the county the opportunity to get involved and help make a difference."

Elliot Payne, of Cannock, who has won a national award for his youth work

Councillor, Mike Lawrence, the county council's cabinet member for children's wellbeing said: "Elliot is a fine example of a young person who puts others first and tries to make things better for the young people of Staffordshire.

"He's passionate about anti-bullying, and has done some great work on the subject over the last year. He's very deserving of the award.

"When commitment from the group began to wane, Elliot was determined that the anti-bullying campaign would continue and worked tirelessly to make it a great success. His warmth and enthusiasm has also inspired several young people to commit to an 'anti-bullying pledge' – something they would do to reduce bullying and its effects."

The Youth Onboard Awards set out to recognise young people's achievements in improving the lives of all young people.

Ex-captain Hart rejoins the Saddlers as chaplain

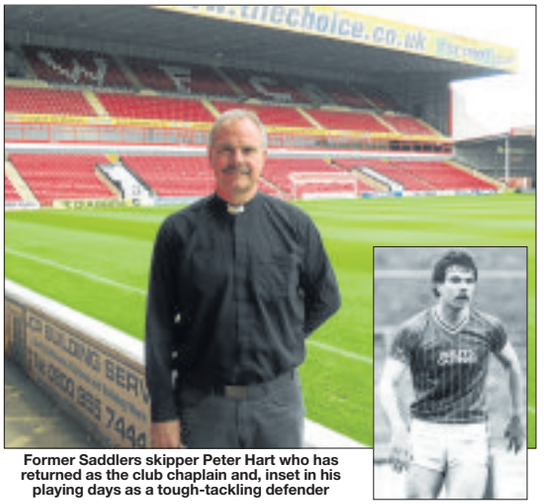
CANNOCK'S team vicar has returned to the football team where he made his name as a player – becoming Walsall FC's club chaplain.

Rev Peter Hart, vicar at St Luke's, is a former Saddlers captain and is now back at the club as its spiritual guide – two decades after hanging up his boots.

Mr Hart played nearly 400 games for the Saddlers and will become only the club's second chaplain, following on from Martin Butt, who joined in the late 1980s but retired at the end of last season.

Tough-tackling former defender Mr Hart said he was pleased to be taking on the role at the Banks's Stadium but admitted the world of football is "a world away" from the one he knew in the 1980s.

The 55-year-old said: "I never imagined that I would be involved with the club in this way. It's been an unexpected progression in that it's 22 years since I left the club.



Former Saddlers skipper Peter Hart who has returned as the club chaplain and, inset in his playing days as a tough-tackling defender

Arrived

"My main function is to get to know the players and staff through the club and be one of a number of people who they may decide to speak to over certain issues affecting their lives.

"Basically I am here to help in any way that I can."

Mr Hart was 23 when he first arrived at Walsall in the summer of 1980, switching from Huddersfield Town.

After nearly 400 games for the Saddlers he earned himself a testimonial game, the last to be played at Walsall FC's then-home Fellows Park.

Mr Hart said he believes his footballing background will help in his new role but he will not be offering advice for players on the pitch.

"My background in the game will help in that I understand the pressures and disappointment that people can feel within professional football and I can draw from first hand experiences," he said.

"I must say that the first few weeks have been most enjoyable.

"The people at the club have been very welcoming and supportive and I have a real buzz for the season ahead."

The former defender said it has been an "illuminating experience" so far, helping him realise what goes on behind-the-scenes at a football club.

"The club we have today is a world away from the one that I was part of during the 1980s," he added.

"The facilities are first-class and everything is geared towards progression and development.

"I am very hopeful and excited about what the future holds in store and I feel that Walsall will surprise a few people this season."

His predecessor Mr Butt leaves the club after 22 years of service but has vowed to continue to attend games despite moving out of the area to retire.

Sean in charity trek

Fundraiser Sean Felton and his son Jobe, aged five

A FUNDRAISER was this week stepping out on a 100-mile trek to raise money for a charity that highlights the issue of abducted youngsters.

Sean Felton, aged 41, from Norton Canes, is the founder of the Abducted Angels charity. He set off from Bury in Greater Manchester to walk the 102 miles back to Cannock.

Joining him will be the family of Emma Louise Lignum, from Bury, whose son Yiannis is missing in Greece.

They are hoping to arrive back at midday on Saturday (September 1). Once they have returned, there will be an event in Cannock town centre to welcome them.

Money raised from the event will help to hire private detectives to aid Emma in her search.

Mr Felton said: "At Abducted Angels we usually get about 15 to 25 parents a day asking for help.

"There are over 500 children a year who are abducted."

For further information on the charity, and the fundraising trek, visit www.abductedangels.org

Action pledge as obesity doubles

THE number of obese children in Cannock has doubled in the past six years, it has emerged.

One in eight children of reception age is now dangerously overweight in the town.

Health bosses have vowed to tackle the problem with a number of schemes to encourage healthier lifestyles.

by Richard Woodall

Sue Venables, spokesman for South Staffordshire Primary Care Trust, said: "In order to tackle the issue of childhood obesity we have put a number of initiatives in place.

Problems

"These include Healthy Kid 5, which is a free service available to children between five and 16 who are experiencing weight problems, providing specialist support and advice on achieving and maintaining a healthy weight."

In 2006/7, there were 60 reception-age youngsters recorded as obese in Cannock.

The latest available figures, for 2010/11, show there were 120.

The number of obese adults has also increased, up from 14,500 in 2006/7 to 17,200 in 2010/11.

PCT bosses are now encouraging people to sign up to one of around 3,000 places a year for adult weight management services.

Figures show that there were a total of 80 obese reception-age youngsters in 2006/07, up to 90 in 2010/11.

Feet burned in pan blaze

AN elderly lady suffered burns to her feet in a chip pan fire in her Rugeley bungalow. A neighbour spotted smoke at her Arthur Wood Place home at around 2pm on Friday (August 24). The woman had tried to deal with the fire by picking up the chip pan using a damp cloth but dropped it, burning her feet.

Katie's slimline tonic is well worth the weight

TIPPING the scales at 18 stones at just 18 years old, Katie Pollard tried to disguise her weight worries with her outgoing personality.

But the photograph here, taken at Christmas inspired the Cheslyn Hay teenager to shed five stones.

The supermarket worker embarked on a new regime, swapping white bread for wholemeal, Coca Cola for Diet Coke and joining Slimming World.

Now, eight months on, Katie has dropped five stones and at 13st 5lbs, has just 7lbs to go until she hits her target weight.

Katie Pollard before she lost all the weight

After, with soccer pundit Robbie Savage

Flattering

And the secret, she says, has been willpower, spurred on by a love of fashion and the flattering clothes she can now fit into.

Katie said: "I often felt like people were staring at me because I was bigger than everyone else and I've been called names.

"My confidence was really low," she added.

Determined to make a change, Katie joined a Slimming World class at Springdale Methodist Church in Wolverhampton.

"There have been some weeks when I've thought, I really fancy eating this and that, but I've been quite strict," said Katie.

A typical day for Katie used to start with a sugary cereal, followed by a chocolate snack, a lunchtime sandwich and often fast food in the evening.

Now, she starts the day with healthy flakes and fruit, eats her own salads, or jacket potatoes for lunch and has a balanced meal in the evening, with the odd chocolate treat every week. Katie's achievements helped her reach the final 28 in Slimming World's young slimmer of the year contest.

She attended a ceremony in Derby where she met former footballer-turned-pundit Robbie Savage.

Grant would help with pitch upkeep

COUNCIL bosses in Cannock have confirmed a £50,000 grant from Sport England would help with long-term maintenance of football pitches at the town's stadium site.

A £700,000 St Modwen grant is available for a £2m sports complex at the Pye Green Road site. Council chiefs also admitted they were keen to apply to Sport England for further funding for the maintenance of existing football pitches. Sport England says it could give grants of up to £50,000 for the upkeep of pitches.

District council leader George Adamson said such a grant would keep the pitches going for a few years. He added consultation would start in the next few weeks.

Songs for A New World is the latest show from Backstreet Theatre Company. It will be performed at Cannock's Prince of Wales Centre in Church Street on Saturday and Sunday, September 1 and 2 at 7.30pm each night.

Complaints over speeds see drop

POLICE have revealed the number of complaints about speeding drivers along major routes in Cannock has fallen.

by Catherine Dalton

But officers have pledged to push ahead with a High Court injunction to stop speeding drivers congregating at Longford Island and the Orbital Retail Park.

Police bosses were meeting with the council's legal team this week to compile a body of evidence to support the application. Around 200 people have added their voice in an online survey about the issue.

However, Ch Insp Carl Ratcliffe said the number of complaints across Cannock about speeding motorists had fallen following a series of crackdowns on affected roads.

Stopped

The most recent was on August 13 and saw 24 cars stopped along racing hotspots Eastern Way, the Orbital and Longford Island.

Another crackdown was carried out earlier in the month, with one car seized and six motorists given warnings.

Ch Insp Ratcliffe said: "From the comments and feedback I have been getting, local residents have certainly noticed a considerable difference since we started taking enforcement action.

"We've has some successful operations and it's having a marked effect in that we are receiving less complaints to the police control room.

"We're really pleased the current action we are taking is having the desired effect."

He said evidence was still being put together in relation to the High Court injunction and council legal chiefs and police chiefs would be sitting down together this week.

He also vowed more sting operations would take place in the coming weeks in a bid to further tackle the problem.

If the High Court injunction is granted, police will have greater powers and could see speeders fined or jailed for up to two years.

Give blood at civic centre

DONORS can roll up their sleeves in Cannock next week. NHS Blood and Transplant is appealing for volunteers to attend the Civic Centre, in Beecroft Road, on Monday (September 3). Session times are 1.30 to 3.30pm and from 4.30 to 7.30pm. Call 0300 123 23 23 to make an appointment.

Rival's assets bought by forklift truck dealer

CANNOCK-based Briggs Equipment – the UK dealer for Yale forklift trucks – is buying the assets of rival Barloworld Handling UK.

Briggs, based in Orbital Way, hopes to take responsibility for sales and service of both the Hyster and Yale brand of trucks by September 30. Chief executive Richard Close said: "This agreement demonstrates our unwavering commitment to the UK market. We are growing strategically and dynamically over and above our competitors."

He added: "The move reflects the aspiration of Briggs which is to invest, grow and expand; building on our platform of success since the Yale UK acquisition."

Traders are joining the campaign to fight fakes

MORE than 300 retailers have supported a council crackdown on counterfeit goods across Staffordshire.

The crackdown forms part of the council's Fight the Fakes campaign which kicked off last weekend.

Since August last year, when trading standards officers investigated reports of counterfeit alcohol on sale in some shops, consumers and businesses have been made aware of the dangers.

Trading standards officers are also waging an ongoing battle against counterfeit tobacco.

With the launch of the campaign, 334 independent retailers are to receive a Fight the Fakes packs. These include advice on problems associated with illegal alcohol and tobacco and tips for retailer on how to avoid these products. There are also Fight the Fakes business cards explaining how people can report information about the supply of bootleg goods.

Alcohol

Packs also include a UV light giving an indication that the duty mark on a bottle of spirits may be forged.

County council cabinet member for communities, Pat Corfield said the council wanted to send a clear message to traders selling fake goods that everything would be done to stop them.

"If we're taking any dangerous counterfeit goods out of circulation we are achieving our goals," he said.

"Through Fight the Fakes, we hope to instil awareness and responsible trading with our businesses."

Victory for residents as drug den shut down

A CRACK house in Cannock has been closed down by magistrates, in what police have described as a "victory for residents".

Needles, pipes and silver foil were found during a police raid at the council flat at Salop Drive in July, as well as traces of drugs.

Neighbours complained of noise disturbing them into the early hours of the morning, dog fouling and a "constant stream of fleeting visitors", prompting police to first apply for the closure order, granted by Cannock magistrates last week.

Officers began boarding up the property and its occupants, Sally and Mark Hawkins, need to find another place to stay.

Grime

In a statement, specialist drugs officer Dc Gary Shell, said: "In my 28 years in the force, the address was one of the worst I have encountered for the presence of drug paraphernalia."

Swabs could only be taken from the kitchen surface and the inside of a cider can as the level of grime was too thick for samples to be prove accurate. Samples did prove heroin had been used.

The Hawkins' both said they used Class A drugs, though Sally was a recovering addict who had relapsed. They however contested allegations of drug dealing.

Sappers to meet

His passenger, a teenage boy, had neck, leg and chest injuries. The other driver, a man in his 30s, had a neck pain. His pregnant passenger had neck and abdominal pain and a 12-year-old girl had back and arm pain from a suspected fracture.

Although the weather was rather unkind, it was held outside. Spirits were not dampened competitions were held, everyone wore red, white and blue.

The proceeds were in aid of the guild's charity for 2012/13 which is "The Alzheimer's Cafe".

The fundraising continued with members manning a white elephant stall and craft stall at the Hammerwich Jubilee Fete held at the cricket club grounds. This was well attended and very worthwhile.

Fundraising of a different kind was taken on, when nine members did a sponsored walk on a very wet morning in aid of the Princess Anne's Carers Trust.

Several of our members attended the National AGM at the ICC in Birmingham. Included in the itinerary were talks given by TV personalities Esther Rantzen and Eric Knowles.

In August the speaker will be Mike Lockley who will be talking about 30 years as a reporter.

At the next meeting on September 13, speaker Nigel Wiggin will talk 'Old Hat'.

Perils of public speaking

THE JULY meeting heard a report from the National AGM by chairman Doreen Archer. Extra to the normal business, talks were given by Eric Knowles about his life and Esther Rantzen about 'Silver Line' the helpline for older people.

Space becomes a mane worry for Lions group

A COMMUNITY service group has issued a plea for more space to store its fundraising equipment.

Cannock Lions has amassed a host of items since it was formed three years ago, but is now running out of room to keep it. The equipment includes tables and boxes of decorations, a raffle drum, Messages In A Bottle and other regalia.

The items have been used over the years to arrange fundraising activities like the Christmas lunch for SSAFA members, the Big Jubilee Event and Burns Night.

Access

A spokesman said: "Cannock Lions needs to be able to have access to the equipment at all time. We are unable to pay for storage as any funds we raise must go to charity. Ideally it would be great if it was in the Cannock/Heath Hayes areas.

"Please could any one help? If everything is in one place we can concentrate on serving our community."

Anyone that can help is asked to call Beverley on 07764 202 842.

Cheers to challenge

Mark and Andrea Rogers at The Hazelslade pub

A POPULAR Chase pub has changed hands, with the new bosses encouraging drinkers to drop by and raise a glass. The Hazelslade in Rugeley Road is now being run by Andrea and Mark Rogers.

Since the pub re-opened with them in charge at the end of July, customers have flocked back to what is the community focal point in Hazelslade village.

Mr and Mrs Rogers, both 47, live off Cannock Wood Street in Hazelslade and decided to take over a pub after their two daughters, 23-year-old Jessica and 20-year-old Charlotte, left home.

Mrs Rogers, who formerly worked as a company secretary and hairdresser, said: "We have never done anything like this before.When our girls left home we decided to. The pub was rock bottom before. In three weeks we have turned it around and people have started to come back.

"We know the people who go and we are all friends. There's nothing in the village apart from the pub. We're looking forward to the challenge."

£4.7m spent by county's schools on supply staff

SUPPLY teachers cost more than £4.7 million at schools across Staffordshire last year, it has emerged.

Headteachers were forced to bring in cover due to long-term absence, sickness, maternity leave and teacher training. The figures were revealed under the Freedom of Information Act.

by Alex Homer

Schools are responsible for making their own staffing arrangements including the hiring of temporary staff. The top-spending schools racked up six-figure bills.

Norton Canes High School in Burntwood Road, was at the top of the list, having spent £159,637 in the last financial year.

The next highest spenders were Great Wyrley Performing Arts High School, in Hall Lane, and Cheslyn Hay Sports and Community High School, Saredon Road. They shelled out £104,886 and £104,747 respectively.

Exceptional

Kingsmead Technology College, in Kings Avenue, Hednesford, spent £103,823. Headteacher Ian Bryant said the cost was down to exceptional circumstances of four staff on maternity leave simultaneously, a long-term illness and two staff leaving at Easter. The school has around 84 full-time teachers and around 1,300 children.

Mr Bryant said: "None of the pupils' education has suffered – in fact it is clearly the opposite and we have had our best ever GCSE results.

"Whenever we need to use agencies, we look for the best people but they cost a bit more unfortunately."

The lowest spending school was Mosley in Burton-on-Trent which only paid £164. Figures showed supply teachers at Sandwell schools cost more than £5 million in the past year.

Most recent information for Walsall showed cover cost £600,000 for the first quarter of the past year, and £2,522,466 for the previous academic year.

Dudley spent more than £2.5m in 2010/11 on supply teachers and temporary staff for its 90 schools and schools in Wolverhampton paid out more than £4.7m.

St John's Church at Slitting Mill which was built after Sarah's death

The Stone House at Slitting Mill, where Sarah lived for 37 years

The thatched cottages on land where the Globe island now partly stands

The Chancel at St Augustine's Church, Rugeley

The almshouses in Church Street, Rugeley

Sarah's bequest was a Godsend to the parish

A CHARITY set up by a Rugeley woman has been closed after nearly 170 years.

by Harry Thornton

The Sarah Hopkins Trust was set up following her death in 1844.

Sarah is known for her charities especially her almshouses in Church Street. She also founded two school charities and two for churches and gave them endowment land – the present John Bamford School being built on part of it.

She inherited wealth from her father Thomas and her batchelor brother Samuel, who were Rugeley ironmasters in the late 18th century.

Sarah, born in 1767, lived at Slitting Mill for the last 37 years of her life, at the Stone House.

The £1,000 she bequeathed in trust was for the purpose of enlarging the parish church or for erecting or enlarging any other church in the parish. For many years, the money remained unused, accruing interest.

In 1873, the trust purchased land in Horse Fair, now partly occupied by the Globe island but then largely occupied by thatched cottages, as an intended site for a new church.

Enthusiasm for a church in Horse Fair waned and a few years later box pews in the existing church were replaced with open ones. In 1895 plans were produced to build a high specification new church around the remains of the Old Chancel and its tower.

The £9,000 cost to improve or alter the church was considered prohibitive despite the trust having accrued more than £3,500 in assets. In 1904, it was decided to build the present high specification Chancel, Lady Chapel and vestries at the east end of the church.

The trust provided £2,000 of the £4,962 total cost, but kept the Horse Fair land and in 1912 demolished the thatched cottages.

By the late 1930s, only one trustee remained, elderly solicitor Richard Henry Landor. He and the Archdeacon of Stafford arranged for it to be administered by five trustees under a Charity Commission Scheme of 1940 named "The Sarah Hopkins Charity for Ecclesiastical Purposes" which also allowed grants to augment the stipends of parish incumbents. Some £6,832 was paid out for that purpose from 1941-76. During this period £5,000 was also granted towards building churches at Etching Hill and the Pear Tree Estate.

The charity was amended in 1972 to widen its scope and £9,500 was subsequently paid out for other church building work. All remaining assets have now been distributed among the five churches in the parish bringing the total paid out to £27,109.

Paying 40 per cent of the building cost and furnishing the Chancel of St Augustine's Church was the charity's greatest single achievement and Sarah is recognised for this by the brass plate on the pulpit steps

Bonzer bonsai trees on show at estate

Shugborough worker Paolo Allen, from Rugeley, shows off some of his bonsai tree collection at the estate

BONSAI beauties were on show at Stafford's Shugborough Estate, as crowds flocked to check out a display of the miniature trees.

Estate worker Paolo Allen showed off his impressive collection of 40 tiny bonsai trees.

The 46-year-old, originally of Rugeley, has been growing bonsai, meaning "grown in a tray", for around 12 years. Visitors from across the country stopped at the historic country estate to see the bonsai display and Mr Allen was on hand to give advice.

The collections includes Chinese elm, a miniature shuttlecock fern and sageretia.

Queue to sign petition

MORE than 2,000 people have signed a petition calling for the future of Cannock Chase Hospital to be safeguarded.

The document is to be presented to bosses on Mid Staffordshire NHS Healthcare Trust on Monday, September 3.

It was launched after bosses announced they were to close the kitchens at Cannock and send food over from Stafford 11 miles away, saving trust bosses £220,000 a year.

The move prompted fears over the possible downgrading of the hospital, which has already fallen from nine wards to two since it opened in the 1980s.

Health trust bosses are also due to attend a meeting of Cannock Chase's health scrutiny panel.

Cannock Chase Council leader George Adamson said people were "queuing up" to sign the petition.

Signatures

He said: "The petition is still ongoing but at the moment we have about 2,000 signatures so far."

"Councillors were out in Rugeley at the weekend and lots of people wanted to sign it. In about half-an-hour, they got more than 500 signatures. People were queuing up to sign it." He added the petition would be presented to trust bosses at next week's meeting to show them the level of support for Cannock Chase Hospital.

Councillors fear the move to close the kitchens, where 30 staff are employed, will affect services to patients.It has also sparked fears more services could shut and move to Stafford – eventually leading to Cannock's closure.

An emergency notice of motion calling for the hospital's future to be safeguarded gained unanimous cross-party support at a full council meeting earlier this month.

COMPETITION

Just the ticket so get on your bike

TO mark The Cycle Show's return to Birmingham's NEC next month the Chronicle series is offering 20 lucky readers the chance to win a pair of tickets to the show.

Some of the world's best-known cycling brands are set to take centre stage at the NEC for this year's show, which is open to the public from Friday, September 28 to Sunday, September 30.

Visitors will be able to grab a preview of the very latest bikes, accessories and fashions for 2013. Familiar brands already confirmed include Trek, Shimano, Raleigh, Condor and Specialized, but fans of cycling exotica will be spoilt for choice with the likes of Italian road racing specialists, Pinarello, Colnago and Cinelli all exhibiting.

Raleigh is celebrating its 125th anniversary in 2012 and is showcasing its full range of bikes and accessories as well as creating a special entrance to the show with a display of classic Raleigh bikes and advertising from its archives. Whether you are looking to try out the latest mountain or road bikes, get an autograph from some of Britain's top pros including Olympic Gold medallists Joanna Rowsell and Ed Clancy, or see top flight BMX riders battle it out for a cut of a £5,000 prize purse, the show promises a packed day of cycling mayhem.

Regular visitors to the NEC might be unaware that there is now a 1km mountain bike route running through woodland in the grounds of the venue. Visitors will be able to choose from a top selection of 2013 bikes before setting off for a spin around the Dare2b course.

The outdoor WASP Road Bike test track is being made electric bike friendly this year so visitors can see what the bikes in this fast-growing sector offer compared to traditional commuter bikes.This year's show will also feature a new Tour Ride Sportive on the Sunday, offering two distances - a 96k challenge and a 150k pro ride – that you can sign up for.

Get on track for some great fun

Spectacle

The sportive, the last in the Tour Ride series for the 2012 season, will allow riders to head out into the Warwickshire countryside before heading back to the NEC for a look around the show.

This year will also see the addition of a Super Crit circuit race around the NEC on the Saturday evening – a fantastic event for riders and a great spectacle for onlookers after a day at the show.

The show is set to be more family friendly than ever, with free tickets for every child under five who attends with a paying adult and tickets for just £1 for under 14s attending with a paying adult.

For more information, or to book tickets, go to www.cycleshow.co.uk and all Chronicle readers can get their advance tickets for £12 for adults by going to www.cycleshow.co.uk/book and entering code PR1.

Bid to avoid levy by pooling rates

LOCAL authorities will pool business rates in a bid to avoid a government levy under plans developed by Cannock Chase District Council.

District council chiefs have developed a scheme under which Cannock Chase could pool rates it collects with either the surrounding local authorities – including the county council, Stoke City and the eight district councils – or the Greater Birmingham and Solihull Local Enterprise Partnership.

If approved, the move would mean Cannock Chase would not be subject to a government levy on the amount it collects, so more cash collected in the area would stay in that area.

Expansion

If Cannock Chase were to pair with the Birmingham and Solihull LEP it may draw the advantages of business growth there, sparked by the expansion of Birmingham Airport, the £120 million casino and hotel development to be called Resorts World at the NEC, as well as Birmingham city centre.

The choice will be made between Birmingham and Solihull or the authorities surrounding Cannock Chase at a special ruling cabinet meeting next Monday. September 3.

Cannock Chase leader Councillor George Adamson said: "We will go for the best thing for the people of Cannock."

Chance to have say as Local Plan hits the road

RESIDENTS across Cannock chase are being urged to have their say on the district's Local Plan – a blueprint that will shape the future of housing and employment development over the next 16 years.

The authority is taking the Local Plan on the road for residents to give their views and raise any issues.

Public events have aleady been held at Hednesford Library and at the Civic Centre in Beecroft Road this week. They follow today (Thursday) at Rugeley Library, from 10am-1pm; tomorrow at Cannock indoor market between the same times; on Monday (September 3) at Pye Green Community Centre, Hednesford, from 5-8pm; on Tuesday at Cannock Wood Village Hall, 4-7pm; on Thursday from 4-7pm at Prospect Village Hall and on Friday from 10am to noon at Rugeley indoor market.

Further dates are on September 11 at Brereton library, from 2-4pm, followed by visits to Heath Hayes and Norton Canes Libraries and Morrisons supermarket Cannock, on September 13. More is available at www.cannockchasedc.gov.uk/planningpolicy

Tenants give a welcome verdict on flats facelift

Ernest Wilkes, Councillor Doris Grice, senior housing property services officer Mark Tunstall, Councillors Frank Allen and George Adamson, tenant representative Andy Derry, Lovell projects manager Paul Meakin and estate management team leader Belinda Wildey

TENANTS have given the thumbs-up to a refurbishment at their block of flats in Cannock.

The communal areas in the block in Trinity Close have had a major facelift, with new carpet, lighting, decoration and a new main entrance door system with intercom.Lovell Partnerships Ltd carried out the work on behalf of Cannock Chase Council.

Other improvements include the removal of a ground-floor bin store to provide a more open communal area and new entrance doors for individual flats. Light fittings have been upgraded using LED low-energy fittings and all wall colours meet Equality Act guidelines.

Excellent

Trinity Close resident Ernest Wilkes has lived in his flat for more than 30 years and is delighted with the improvements.

The 86-year-old said: "The refurbishment is excellent – it's the only word I can use to describe it. The workmen were brilliant and we've now got a much brighter and pleasant environment here."

Tenants were involved at every stage of the refurbishment, including choosing the colour of the carpet and paint.

The council's housing leader Councillor Frank Allen said: "The upgrade of the communal areas has been a great success and it's wonderful to hear from tenants how much they appreciate it.

"The block was built in the early 1970s and was in need of improvements. We're now looking to roll out the improvements to our other communal blocks," he added.

Friends committee roles up for grabs

THE Friends of Hednesford Park has served notice of elections for its management committee ahead of its AGM. Positions up for re-election are chairman, vice-chairman, secretary, treasurer, communications officer, youth liaison officer and young people representatives, ideally suited for someone under 18 with parental consent.

Applications should be put in writing for the attention of the secretary and placed either in the box inside the park pavilion or emailed to friendsofhednesfordpark@hotmail.co.uk before September 6. The AGM is at 7pm on September 20 at the Ex-Servicemen's Club, Anglesey Street.

Scooter in safe hands

Tammy Haydon and friends with the scooter at Complete Kidz in Smethwick

A HOCKEY player who has been encouraging youngsters to take up sport has won an electric scooter which was used in the closing ceremony of the London 2012 Olympics.

Cannock goalkeeper Tammy Haydon entered the competition after hearing about the Big Dribble Challenge. The npower-run competition encouraged people to get involved in the Olympics by helping to dribble a giant hockey ball 2,012 kilometres.

The competition travelled throughout the country and Tammy entered the event in Birmingham. The 34-year-old, from Smethwick, has also played for West Bromwich Ladies hockey club.

She also helps her sister Jo Haydon run the sports coaching community interest company, Complete Kidz, in Smethwick.

Tammy was presented with her £4,000 scooter, signed by the Team GB hockey side, at the Complete Kidz base in Elm Court.

Police leave over new regulations

ALMOST 50 officers have left Staffordshire Police since regulations to force officers with 30 years experience to retire were introduced.

Figures show 49 officers have left the force since Regulation A19 came into force in November. Another 34 could follow before the end of March when the scheme will be reviewed.

Bosses insist the majority are voluntarily retirements.

Staffordshire Police is battling to save £34m by April 2015 – with 86 per cent of its budget spent on staff costs.

Deputy Chief Constable Douglas Paxton said: "It is unavoidable that the organisation has to operate with fewer people. Over the last two years we have been working very hard to restructure the force and transform services while protecting service delivery to our communities.

"We are well on our way to making these savings and have already reduced significantly the number of people in the organisation.

Reserve

"We have done this through natural turnover, A19, a recruitment freeze, early retirement and voluntary redundancies which have been funded during this period through a reserve fund, set aside for this purpose."

Chief Constable Mike Cunningham said: "At present, 49 officers have left Staffordshire Police following the introduction of regulation A19. It is important to point out that the majority of officers with 30 years service retire voluntarily."

High Sheriff sails by on county trip

THE High Sheriff of Staffordshire made a pit stop at Chase Sailing Club as she carried out a car ride around the county for charity.

Sarah Elsom revived an ancient tradition – staking out her boundary on a 227-mile trip around the county. She visited the sailing club, based at Chasewater, on her way to catch a glimpse of races taking place.

The professional curator, based at the Ancient High House in Stafford, "beat the bounds" of the county in her 1928 Austin A7, named Chummy, to also mark the 90th anniversary of the vintage vehicle.

And while she made her journey, Mrs Elsom drummed up funds for the SSAFA Forces Help. The charity helps service personnel and their families when in need.

Her visit coincided with the Pool Road sailing club reopening for the first time in two-and-a-half years, as it has been closed while the Chasewater reservoir was drained for its dam to be repaired.

Club vice commodore Robin Sanders said: "It was great for the High Sheriff to drop by and for us to be able to help support her chosen charity."

Musical tale of a forbidden 60s love

THE musical story of two star-crossed lovers is being presented at Cannock's Prince of Wales Centre in October. Chase Day Service's Chase Theatre Craft group presents Hairnets, Hearts and Harmonies on Friday, October 12 from 7.30pm.

It is based around two competing hair salons in the swinging 60s, following journey of Delilah and Bobby as they declare their love for each other despite their families' disapproval. Join them as they experience romance, conflict, hate and jealousy.

The production features music from The Beatles, Petula Clark and the Tremeloes with comedy, crazy costumes and hairstyles thrown in.

Tickets are £10 and available from the box office on 01543 578762.

Bands pay tribute to US rock giants

A TRIBUTE to American band REM plays at the Tackeroo in Hednesford this weekend.

Expect to hear the likes of Shiny Happy People, Man On the Moon and What's The Frequency, Kenneth at the venue in Bracken Close, Brindley Heath on Saturday, September 1.

The band takes the stage at 9pm and tickets are £5.

The following Saturday, September 8, sees the UK's number one Bon Jovi tribute take the stage. Admission is £6.

Call 01543 423124.

Hard work will be required to set another good Example

Be set for 'Queen' Stacy to rock you

Queen tribute act She Will Rock You fronted by Stacy

THE UK's only female-fronted Queen tribute band will play a gig in Wolverhampton tonight (Thur).

She Will Rock You, fronted by vocalist Stacy Green, will take to the stage at Bilston's Robin 2 .

Drummer Steve Black said: "One of vocalist Stacy Green's biggest influences was the legendary Queen.

"She learnt her trade listening to Freddie Mercury and Brian May as guitarist.

"This has led her to join forces with two current members of Led Zeppelin tribute band Fred Zeppelin and together with bassist Mark Cresswell, myself and guitarist and Elliott Gavin they have formed the unique and only UK female fronted tribute to Queen.

"With Stacy as Freda Mercury she is now truly the Queen of Rock."

Tickets for Thursday's gig at the venue in Mount Pleasant are £8 in advance or £10 on the door. Call 01902 401211 to book.

The band has a number of other gigs lined up in the region in the coming weeks. This includes a performance at the Fern & Fallow, Stafford Road, Cannock, on Thursday, September 13.

Tickets are £5 on 01543 899199.

They will also play The Roadhouse in Lifford Lane, Kings Norton, Birmingham on September 20 and Coseley WM Club on September 27.

YOU'D have expected him to have been focused on the afternoon's show. After all, rave-pop superstar Example was third on the bill at this year's V Festival. But backstage, there was only one thing on the mind of Elliot John Gleave – lasers.

Example will hit the road early in the new year for his second stadium tour and he is determined that it will bigger and better than before. He played to huge crowds in spring, but will be performing to even bigger audiences early next year. His tour will reach Birmingham's LG Arena on February 28.

Example said: "Yeah, we did an arena tour in April this year, so this is the second one. The first arena tour is like a milestone in your career, this time the pressure is on to put on a bigger better show – so I'm thinking about getting lasers involved.

"I've always loved lasers, not many people can say 'Yeah I've got lasers'.

"They cost an absolute fortune, they're seriously expensive, but they're going to make the show incredible."

Recent

Before then, Example has the small matter of a new single to promote, Say Nothing, which is out on September 16. His new album, The Evolution of Man, will also follow on November 18. It has been produced by DJ Dirty South.

Example's got work to do to maintain his recent form. His last album, Playing In The Shadows, topped the charts and he enjoyed two successive number one singles, Changed the Way You Kiss Me and Stay Awake.

Say Nothing is an anthemic stadium filler and destined radio smash. To add to the mix, Example recruited the legendary guitar skills of Blur hero Graham Coxon.

● Tickets for LG Arena show in February 2013 are on sale now, priced £25. Visit www.theticketfatory.com or call 0844 338 8000 to book.

Andy Richardson

What a galloping good old giggle

Dandy Dick
Alexandra Theatre, Birmingham

TO continue the equine flavour of Pinero's Victorian comedy classic, the action sees each actor fast out of the stalls and the audience left galloping to a good old giggle.

This revival of the 1887 rib-tickler is an exhibition in fine writing, masterclass acting and scene setting. While its formal old-fashioned style may not be to everyone's taste, there is something very soothing about being lost in a world of gentleman callers, drapers' bills and butlers.

Led by old favourites Patricia Hodge and Nicholas Le Prevost, the actors are, to a man, magnificent. Not seen for 40 years, the play tells of an impoverished dean and his frivolous daughters who become involved in the evils of horse racing through the antics of the cleric's wayward widowed sister.

There are surprise guests, mistaken identities, a jail break, a runaway horse and romance. Who could ask for more?

The competition has been organised through the Melanie Till Memorial Fund, set up night in memory of a former Cannock schoolteacher.

Tickets are £12 with reductions for concessions and families.

Irish eyes will be smiling at centre

Paul Martin

Britain's Hidden Heritage
BBC1, 6.30pm

While there's not really a lot that's 'hidden' in the series, Britain's Hidden Heritage has been compelling; yes, even without another shock appearance from apparent all-rounder HRH Prince Charles. As the series wraps up, there's still plenty to be explored, as Paul Martin looks into the extensive archives of Berkeley Castle in Gloucestershire. Meanwhile Clare Balding discovers how Country Life magazine's 115-year-old photographic collection has helped restore the most unlikely of country house interiors.

Pick of the Week

Hoping to keep the feel good factor going

We're a sturdy old nation if nothing else. For those of us who sat through the nail-biting Olympic Games – from the opening ceremony through the emotional wins and near-wins of Team GB, to that surprise-laden closing ceremony, we have certainly done ourselves proud.
The eyes of the world have been on us since we celebrated the Queen's Jubilee back in June, and we haven't once crumbled – but the pressure is far from off, as the next stint of the Games is officially declared open in London 2012 Paralympic Games Opening Ceremony.
Due to the success of the Olympics, ticket sales for the Paralympics have soared and, at the time of writing, the surge had meant it was on track be the first to sell out in the event's 52-year history. London 2012-fever is as rife as ever, something that former Paralympic swimmer Rachael Latham is intensely proud of. She said: "When we won the bid, and everybody was saying how the Paralympics will be so much bigger, I always wondered how they were going to make sure it was on par with the Olympics. And the best thing is that I don't think they've needed to do that much [to promote it] – people simply want it to be [a big hit]. Everyone is excited for the Paralympics, which I don't think we've ever had before. It definitely wasn't like that when I was racing in Beijing. I think it's going to be a new era for the Paralympics."
Rachael is the current European record holder for 200m butterfly, world record holder for 50m butterfly and 200m backstroke British record holder. She took part in two finals in the Beijing Paralympics, but an injury meant she had to retire from competitive swimming in 2009, and couldn't be involved in London 2012 – at least not in the way she had previously known. However, she is on presenting duties and will be covering all the action down on the front line for Channel 4 – and that's the next best thing, according to Rachael.
She explains: "There was no way I wasn't going to get involved in London 2012. When I couldn't go with swimming, I just had to find a new way to be able to get there.
"Obviously I'm an athlete at heart and I always will be but I couldn't have asked for anything more than to be part of the media. Channel 4 is going to do a great job and I'm so excited."
But let's not get ahead of ourselves - as the opening ceremony gets underway, Channel 4 stalwarts Jon Snow and Krishnan Guru-Murthy present from what promises to be a phenomenal start to the occasion; especially given that the Paralympics originated in the UK in 1948.
We can expect a spectacle that challenges perceptions of human possibility, including a fly past by Aerobility, a British charity that trains disabled people to become pilots, a parade of all the competing nations, and, of course, the official entrance of the Paralympic Flame.

Jon Snow presents the ceremony from the Olympic Stadium, London 2012 Paralympic Games Opening Ceremony, Wednesday, Channel 4, 8pm

Best of the Rest

MONDAY
Harry's Mountain Heroes
ITV1, 9pm
This inspiring one-off documentary follows five soldiers who were wounded on the battlefields of Iraq and Afghanistan, but who are now preparing to take on one of the biggest challenges on Earth – scaling Mount Everest. Although Prince Harry (or as the Olympic announcers call him, Prince Henry) was unable to take part in the climb because of other commitments, he has been there to support captains Martin Hewitt and David Wiseman, privates Jaco van Gass and Karl Hinett, and doctor Francis Atkinson in his role as both a patron and a friend. He even turns up to see them off at Heathrow as they prepare to fly to Nepal. But even with a royal to inspire them, the challenge of trying to reach the top is fraught with danger.

New Tricks
BBC1, 9pm
When Jack Halford (James Bolam) ended the last series of the detective drama by telling his boss Sandra (Amanda Redman) that he didn't really care whether he lived or died, most viewers didn't give it that much thought. After all, it wouldn't be the first time a run had ended with the threat that an old dog was going to give up on New Tricks. However, this time around it seems Jack actually meant it, as he shocks Sandra, Brian (Alun Armstrong) and Gerry (Dennis Waterman) by announcing his resignation. The team are keen to find out why, but shadowy Whitehall official Stephen Fisher (Tim McInnerny) wants them to put their skills to a very different use.

TUESDAY
ACCUSED
BBC1, 9pm
Liverpudlian comedian John Bishop has done the odd acting role in the past, but this week's drama really gives him something to get his teeth into. He plays Peter, a father of two whose wife is dying. Peter tries to ease the pain his teenage sons Stephen and Dom will feel, and is pleased to have the help and support of palliative care nurse Charlotte. But eventually, after his mum's death, Stephen suspects that Charlotte may not be the saintly figure his dad thinks she is, and begins to be plagued by doubts and anxieties. But, most puzzling of all, why does former spin doctor Alistair Campbell keep appearing to talk to him?

WEDNESDAY
BRITAIN THEN AND NOW
ITV1, 9pm
In June this year, many people threw street parties to help celebrate the Queen's diamond jubilee – and that proved to be a surefire way of getting to know the folk living around them. One such bunch of residents from east London were tasked with recreating the same style of bash that would have gone on in 1953, when the Coronation took place. All they had to go on to help them were a handful of photographs of the event that happened on their road all those years ago – until they managed to track down some of the original partygoers. The research and organisation revealed some fascinating social changes that have happened in the decades since, as this documentary reveals.

Accused, Tuesday, BBC1, 9pm

THURSDAY
BRITAIN BY NIGHT
ITV1, 9pm
If we're to believe news reports and certain sections of the media, Britain is a dangerous place at night. But it's actually a minority of folk who suffer during the wee small hours; the rest of us get on with our lives just as we would during the day, although if this documentary is anything to go by, thoughts and emotions can be more heightened once darkness falls. Among the people featured here is Tony, whose constant battle to keep London's streets clean once the crowds have gone home is tempered by his feelings toward the break-up of his marriage. But it's not all doom and gloom; Indian bride Nisha's dream is about to come true, while midwife Natalie supervises an emotional delivery.

FRIDAY
UEFA SUPER CUP LIVE
ITV1, 7.30pm
The Stade Louis II stadium in Monaco plays host to the 36th staging of the Super Cup, as last season's Champions League winners Chelsea take on Europa League victors Atletico Madrid. Both sides have won this competition once in their history, with neither doing so as European champions. Chelsea's only success came when they beat Atletico's cross-city rivals Real on this ground in 1998 thanks to a solitary goal from Gustavo Poyet, while the Mattress Makers defeated Inter Milan 2-0 in 2010. Di Matteo and Simeone have turned round the fortunes of their clubs over a short period of time, bringing unexpected success at the highest level against the odds, and both men will be keen to win this piece of silverware to enhance their growing reputations.

In with the Flynns
BBC1, 9pm
They may be as predictable as night following day, but the traditional British sitcom will be a staple of small-screen entertainment long after we're all pushing up the daisies. For newcomers, this one stars Will Mellor and Niky Wardley as a couple raising three children, while having to deal with an irresponsible brother and a grumpy dad. This week, Liam attempts to earn some extra cash by giving personal training lessons. However, the plan backfires when Julie, his first client, wants more from him than just training. Meanwhile, Kevin is heartbroken when he splits with Naimah. Will Mellor, Warren Clarke, Niky Wardley, Alex Carter, Daniel Rogers, Lorenzo Rodriguez and Nadine Mulkerrin star.

Display centres on town's rich lockmaking heritage

by Catherine Dalton

WILLENHALL's history has gone under the spotlight in a new exhibition.

Famous for centuries for its lockmaking industry, the town's heritage is being uncovered in a display at Walsall Local History Centre.

The Essex Street venue is showing reproductions of rarely seen old photographs as well as documents dating back to before Victorian times.

Council leader Mike Bird said: "The towns which make up the present metropolitan borough of Walsall have a fascinating and varied history.

Items

"They all made a major contribution to the development of manufacturing in the UK and produced goods of the highest standard.

"This is the first of a series of exhibitions, created entirely in-house, reproducing items from the collections of Walsall Local History Centre and looking at the history of various towns across the borough."

Willenhall Past and Present went on show last Tuesday and runs until October 23.

Admission is free during normal opening hours.

Historian Stuart Williams shows some of the photographs from the exhibition

Zafira Tourer tows the line for quality

The Tourer was named best MPV at Practical Caravan's Towcar Awards

By Sharon Walters

FIRST things first, I don't need a seven seater car and I don't need to be able to tow a decent weight . . . but if I did the Vauxhall Zafira Tourer would be up there among contenders.

This third-generation of the model hit our roads earlier this year and has continued its earlier success and built on it. Unlike some MPVs, it is full-size with plenty of space for seven, and also unlike other MPVs, it can actually tow a decent weight. In fact it was named this year's Best MPV at Practical Caravan magazines's Towcar Awards 2012.

The Practical Caravan awards, backed by What Car? magazine and The Camping and Caravanning Club, are based on a vigorous and thorough towcar assessment. Each car is tested by a panel of eight judges for its towing ability, buying and owning costs, drive quality when not towing and practicality.

"The Zafira Tourer really comes into its own when towing," said awards judge Nigel Donnelly, Haymarket Outdoor Leisure Group's editor-in-chief – digital.

"At the legal limit and beyond the Zafira Tourer is a relaxing car to tow with. With plenty of power and torque, the 2.0-litre engine pulled car and caravan from 30-60mph in 14.1 seconds.

Braking showed the shortest stopping distance in this class. The Zafira Tourer offers strong performance, good stability and space for seven."

Models

"We're delighted Zafira Tourer has won the Best MPV title at the Towcar Awards 2012," said Peter Hope, Vauxhall's marketing director. "The Towcar of the Year awards are an industry standard and by far the most prestigious event in the caravanning calendar."

And while I didn't test its towing capabilities the 2.0 litre version I drove certainly felt it had the capability to hitch up the 'van' for a summer holiday and leave you feeling pretty safe behind the wheel with the kids piled in the back.

But I did test some of Vauxhall's flexibility claims by trying out a number of the options Flex7 seating system. There are several including 'Lounge Seating' on key models.

When you want seven up the two seats at the very back come up out of the floor and the middle bench seat is now a set of three separate seats which are also each capable of folding and splitting into any number of combinations. In addition the two outside seats slide backwards and inwards against the middle seat which folds to form two arm rests and gives plenty of space.

Only downside to seven up is the reduced boot space. But if you want to turn it into a load lugger put all the seats down to reveal 1,860 litres of space – more than enough for a trip to collect flat-pack from Ikea or clear the shed out and head for the tip.

Panoramic

Staying on the inside materials are of a much better quality than the old model and the design means everyone gets a good view of outside from the light and airy cabin. This is made even better if you opt for a panoramic sunroof and the high-top windscreen

There's a choice of two petrol engines and three diesel. My car was the ecoflex with start/stop technology and I really could appreciate the difference in fuel consumption when chugging around town doing odd jobs and stopping off for shopping.

Sitting at traffic lights just when they change at one of my regular routes can take some minutes and when the engine switches off it can make all the difference on your monthly fuel bill.

Drivewise it was comfortable and coped well with the pot-holes on the B roads on my way into work and it smoothly made its way along the M54.

Standard features across the four trim level range include: ESP, six airbags, air conditioning, CD/MP3 player and cruise control – not bad with prices starting at £21,010.

Despite this summer's weather, Here at Chase we've got some...

Bumpers on Ford's doors are a delight

The Ford Focus's 1-litre engine produced plenty of umph on the open road

The heated front seats with red leather inserts come as an optional extra

I THINK it was Ford that first thought of 'surprise and delight' to describe unexpected features on its cars, the sort of thing to produce a double take and a 'wow' in the showroom.

Well, the Focus that's just put 1,900 miles under its handsome alloys on holiday duty in France needed its doors opening to uncover a feature to de-stress visits to a crowded supermarket car park.

By Ian Donaldson

For, as you open the doors (front or rear) a slither of soft black plastic emerges as if by magic and clamps itself gently over the vulnerable opened edge that's just about to clout the car parked alongside.

Honestly, it's better than watching the telly (type in Ford Door Edge Protector to see it on YouTube) and the best £50 you could spend on your new Focus. Surprise and delight!

But that's not the reason for this road test. Driven first some months ago, it made an impressive debut, featuring an amazing engine that does more with less than you'd ever expect.

Computer

It's tiny one-litre, three-cylinder petrol unit ought not produce enough puff to excite a lawnmower, but defies expectations so comprehensively that people taking test drives are being won over in droves when they sample its 123bhp output.

What bothered me a bit after the shortish initial test drive was the 38mpg shown on the car's easily read trip computer.

The official average is better than 56mpg; no cars reach the mythic figure produced in the lab, but worse than 40mpg seemed a letdown.

Cue the loan of a £19,195 Focus for a flight to France and a decent mileage to see what this engineering marvel could manage in a longer term relationship.

We cruised the almost deserted autoroutes together with the speedo nailed to the 83mph legal maximum for hours on end. We enjoyed some spirited drives through lovely countryside and sweltered in jams as Paris set off for its annual summer holiday.

The result was exactly 40.0mpg. Neither a triumph nor a disaster but I'm sure a little restraint would have helped a bit – but not enough to approach the figure Ford is forced to quote by Euro legislation.

Take heart though that there's no road tax to pay in year one and a mere £30 annually thereafter, the car costs £850 less than an equivalent diesel in the Focus range and the fuel itself is a bit less expensive than the smelly stuff too.

If you enjoy driving there's a more compelling reason to pick the Focus with the pint-sized powerplant; it's a joy to drive. Less weight over the front wheels (another bonus of building a tiny engine) makes it eager as a puppy scenting lunch to change direction when a corner appears.

So good is the Focus at producing smiles for its driver that you wonder why rivals don't try harder to copy the recipe.

The car looks good too in Zetec S guise, with added body styling bits giving it a sporting stance, helped by lowered suspension and, on the test car, £400 worth of larger alloy wheels.

French roads suited the firmer set up perfectly. Back in Britain our rougher surfaces brought out the added firmness, but not in an annoying way.

Inside, spending another £800 brings heated front seats with red leather inserts, power functions for the driver's seat and electric rear windows.

But it's the £50 for those door edge protectors that made my day.

There's no road tax to pay in the first year

KIA MOTORS The Power to Surprise™

Toyota Land Cruiser tops the list of diesels in the Glass's Guide depreciation stakes

Motor trade's 'bible' lists best cars that hold price

GLASS'S Guide has revealed the top five petrol and diesel cars that suffer the least from depreciation – the decline in value of a car from new.

The current residual value winner is the Toyota Land Cruiser. One of the key reasons for the Land Cruiser's success – its slightly larger derivative the Amazon comes in at number five on the list – is that it has never been the victim of distress marketing by the manufacturer and this has ensured that used examples have been in limited supply.

Also in the top five diesels are the Skoda Yeti and Octavia. No longer the butt of jokes, Skoda is producing excellent, functional cars.Benefiting from VW underpinnings, they are also very reliable and buyers are starting to catch on to this. Completing the top five diesels is the Audi Q5.

As for petrols, the popular Fiat 500 makes the top five in both hardtop and convertible format.

The Fiat 500 is retro yet modern at the same time and is a completely classless vehicle appealing to a very broad range of customer.

The convertible version retains its B and C-pillar which makes it less of a compromise than most soft-tops. The 300bhp rally-derived Ford Focus RS also features, and like previous RS Fords, it is distinctive from the mainstream Focus and its limited supply ensures that it keeps a very strong resale value. Two of the top five petrols are four-wheel drive vehicles.

The Audi Q7 is one of the few Audis with real stand-out looks and is towards the more affordable end of the Q7 range. A strong image ensures this model's place on the list.

The Suzuki Jimny may be towards the other end of the 4X4 sector in the prestige stakes, but its super-cheap list price ensures its value doesn't fall too sharply in the early years of ownership.

Much-loved Mazda MX-5 is a byword for reliability

Soft-top superstar – the Mazda MX-5 came out top in What Car? magazine's reliability study

IN its annual reliability survey of more than 50,000 cars What Car? magazine has confirmed that the iconic Mazda MX-5 sportscar is the most reliable car in Britain.

Mazda MX-5 sportscars manufactured since 2005 recorded a failure rate of just four per cent – the lowest of all cars in the 2012 survey – compared to the next nearest open-top competitor at 15 per cent.

With 96 per cent of these Mazda models being fault-free, the MX-5 also achieved an impressive Reliability Index (RI) score of just eight (the lower score, the better the car), while the national average score for individual models was 100.

According to the survey, MX-5 owners also benefit from the lowest repair costs with an average repair bill of just £165.

The survey calculates a vehicle's Reliability Index (RI) from several factors – the number of times it fails, the cost of repair, the average time it spends off the road being repaired, its age and mileage.

Enjoyment

"It's no surprise that the MX-5 scored so highly in the What Car? annual survey," said David Wilson-Green, After-sales Director, Mazda UK. "The Mazda MX-5 has won many awards over the years and regularly achieves excellent reviews in the national media for the pure driving enjoyment it provides and its distinctive good looks.

"Our Japanese brand is renowned for its engineering expertise and for its remarkably reliable models, which is one of the reasons we have so many loyal customers."

For more than 20 years the two-seater MX-5 has captured the hearts of motorists, earning its accolade as the 'world's best-selling two-seater sportscar'.

Owners are often attracted to its stylish design and invigorating drive, but Mazda's reliability has played a major role in its longevity, something the What Car? Magazine survey endorses in the September edition.

The Eight-strong range presents a choice of a Soft-top or Roadster Coupe with a powered retractable hard-top.

Referee on spot as Hayes go down

Heath Hayes 3 Tividale 4

HEATH HAYES crashed out of the FA Cup in a seven-goal thriller packed with incident.

They gifted the visitors two early goals in this preliminary round tie, but fought back well and the game hinged on the refusal to give Hayes a spot-kick when they trailed 3-2.

After three minutes, Adam Wood lost the ball in his own area allowing Bret Clark to put Tividale in front and within five minutes Kyle Brady doubled the visitors' lead following further home indecision.

It took a few more scary moments before Hayes launched their first worthwhile attack, but Craig Hancox's effort was saved by keeper Tim Beech.

However, moments later Hancox made no mistake when heading home Dave Waple's deep cross.

On 40 minutes Tividale made it 3-1 when Hayes won a corner which was cleared to the unmarked Clark who ran through to set up another goal for Brady.

At the break, Hayes replaced Peter Dolman with Alex Roofe – and the move brought an immediate debut goal as he collected a through ball from Waple and converted.

With Hayes in the ascendancy, a good move down the right ended with Luke Jones being brought down by Jason Chilton. The referee ruled the infringement to be outside the box.

Beech then saved brilliantly from Lee Smith and on 80 minutes Brady completed his hat-trick.

Brad Grice pulled one back but Tividale held on.

Pitmen oche for 'One Dart'

DARTS ace Peter Manley is to visit Hednesford Town's ground. Manley, known as 'One Dart', will take on a number of local players at the Chase Suite in Keys Park on Wednesday, October 24.

The former Professional Darts Corporation world championship finalist is one of the game's most colourful characters.

The evening will also see Manley talk about his career.

Tickets are priced at £10 and £15. Call Scott Smith on 07518 14480, email events@htfcsa.co.uk or visit the club's commercial office.

Dave Bate fires home the equaliser for Chasetown

Nick Wellecomme shows control for the Scholars

Mark Branch gets a foot in to make a clearance

Hay gives Scholars the heads-up in cup clash

AN ENTERTAINING FA Cup tie saw Chasetown edge out their Staffordshire rivals Rocester with all three goals coming inside the first half.

Rocester took the lead with their first serious attack. Chasetown defender Chris Slater gave the ball away and the lively Edwin Asante-Ahenkorah advanced on goal and neatly side-footed past Ryan Price.

Chasetown 2 Rocester 1

The Scholars were level within a minute, though as midfielder Dave Bate tried his luck from outside the box and his right foot shot fizzed past keeper Richard Froggatt.

The home side went ahead on the half hour. Mark Branch chipped in an accurate free-kick from just outside the penalty area and the unmarked Gary Hay headed home from less than six yards out.

Curled

With the confidence of being ahead, Chasetown played some lovely football and a Nick Wellecomme cutback found Hay, whose shot was blocked by a defender.

Craig Harris' men ended the half on top and a Branch free-kick curled inches wide of the upright a minute before the break.

Rocester were not lying down without a fight. Just short of the hour mark, Ryan Grocott fired goalwards from long range and Price held on well.

Scholars skipper Richard Teesdale ought to have made it 3-1 when the ball ricocheted to his feet, but he failed to connect with the ball sweetly and it ended up well wide of the target.

Chasetown looked likely to add to their tally and Froggatt saved well to deny Hay.

Midway through the second half, Rocester hit the post through goalscorer Asante-Ahenkorah.

In an end-to-end second half, former Scholars midfielder Craig Holland saw a goalbound attempt blocked, then Froggatt was called into action with a double save to keep out Hay.

In the dying minutes, sub Paul Sullivan went close to adding a decisive third.

Chasetown entertain Market Drayton Town in the First Qualifying Round on September 8.

Chasetown: Price, Richardson, Branch, Slater, Bate, Teesdale, Westwood, Saunders (Gould, 68), Wellecomme (Sullivan, 81), Hay, Brown. Subs not used: M Johnson, Clarke-O'Connell, Downes, Maguire, Evans.

Rocester: Froggatt, McComisky, Rogers, W Johnson (Bullock, 55), Perks (Smith, 89), Allen, Langston, Holland, Sterling, Asante-Ahenkorah, Grocott (Ward, 67). Subs not used: Swain, McLeod.

Gary Hay gets up to plant a header into the net for Chasetown's winner in the FA Cup tie against Rocester

Matches hit as the weather takes toll

ALL Penkridge CC's Bank Holiday matches were hit by rain. But the firsts remain in contention for promotion from Birmingham League Division Three.

Oswestry 240-6, Penkridge 89-7. Draw

Penkridge were unable to make up ground on their rivals. They restricted Oswestry to 240-6 with Shafiq Ahmed claiming 4-75 as South African Warrick Fynn hit 105. Rain saw Penkridge set 148 off 25 overs for the winning draw, but they lost wickets in trying to up the run rate to finish well short.

Streetly 201, Penkridge 84-4. Abandoned

Penkridge picked up nine valuable points in a match that was abandoned due to the weather. They put Streetly in and Laeq Chishti took 4-30 as they bowled out Streetly for 201. A robust 52 from Tom Chew kept Penkridge ahead of the run rate and the game was in the balance when the rain came.

Penkridge 196, Streetly 197-5. Streetly won by five wickets

Penkridge seconds started really well, moving to 70 without loss after 10 overs. But after the loss of Matt Jones (27) and Rob Lawrence (61), they slipped to 115-5. Steve Jones (32) and Jon Price (29) then rebuilt the innings. In reply, Streetly were always in control thanks largely to an unbeaten 77 by David Yeend and got home with seven overs to spare.

Martial arts student can teach aikido

MARTIAL ARTS student Steve Tonks has passed his teaching certificate.

Tonks belongs to Black Star Aikido which is based at The Village Hall in Cheslyn Hay. He is now authorised to teach aikido, which means "the way of the harmonious spirit".

Tonks is now able to use the Japanese title of Sensei, which means "the one who has gone before" and is used to refer to teachers and instructors.

"I had to work hard to get this qualification, completing a portfolio of evidence in both the academic side of teaching and actually taking classes under assessment," he said. "I am so proud to finally reach instructor status."

Rangers dish out first round cup surprise

THIRD Division Rugeley Rangers pulled off the upset of the first round of the Cannock Chase Cup by knocking out first division FC Premier Suite.

Ash Warrilow scored to level the scores in the first half for Rugeley and that's how it stayed even after extra time.

Into the shoot-out and Rugeley could even afford to miss their first penalty. Stand-in keeper Joe Mogford pulled on the gloves and saved two spot-kicks with Mark Lovenberry scoring the winner to reach round two.

Third Division Lamb & Flag knocked out Ascot, a flight above them, 4-0 with two goals for Mark Reynolds and one each for Adam Dunning and Jason Sutton.

Harrisons put out Trafalgar 2-0, Lewis Perry and Phil Wilkes scoring. Cheslyn Hay Athletic needed extra time to knock out Winding Wheel with goals from Shaun Pearce, Will Lushy and the winner by Graham Roberts.

AFC Piper beat Railway 7-1. Both Dan Stevens and Dave Brazier scored hat-tricks with one from John Willis. A double by Adam Green for White Hart was enough to knock out Athletic Bridge 2-0. A goal by Jordan Harvey helped Bar Sports to beat Wyrley Jnrs 1-0.

Brereton Social defeated Woodys 4-1 with a double from Gary Dunn and one each for Dan Stockall and Stuart Simpson.

Last season's losing finalists, Third Division CK Academy, knocked out Second Division Victoria Athletic 4-3. Dan Campbell bagged two and Dave Sheidon and Steve Heatley added one each.

Hawkins Sports beat Lea Hall United 4-1. Earl Grant and Danny Chartwood both netted before a double from Adam Wall.

The Hen House came back from one down to knock out Cannock Social 2-1 with 10 men after a penalty. Liam Martin's double put the Hen House into round two.

Winning line-up keeps Pitmen on victory run

HEDNESFORD TOWN continued their excellent start to the 2012/13 season with a well-deserved Evo-Stik Northern Premier victory over Blyth Spartans.

Manager Rob Smith kept faith with a team which had won both of its previous league games as Town faced Blyth for the first time in the club's history, writes Scott Smith.

Hednesford made a dreadful start, falling behind in just the third minute. Darren Campion was robbed of possession by Lee Mason. The Blyth man drove forward and his cross into the box was missed by Francino Francis, leaving Phil Airey with a simple finish into the net.

The Pitmen responded excellently, though, as first Francis headed wide from a free-kick before Aaron Rey and Elliott Durrell were both denied in the space of a few seconds as Hednesford pressed hard for an equaliser.

At the other end a mis-hit shot found Robbie Dale who couldn't quite poke the ball home.

Hednesford continued to press as the second half started and but for a little luck would have been level after 47 minutes.

Upright

The post came to Blyth's rescue as Nathan Woolfe glided down the wing and picked out Jamey Osborne inside the penalty area, only for the midfielder to see his effort strike the upright.

Town finally drew level in the 54th minute.

Blyth were unable to clear their lines after a corner and although Durrell scuffed a shot into the ground, the ball found its way to Harvey who slotted home from six-yards out. Hednesford continued to press and in the 66th minute went ahead.

Blyth Spartans 1
Hednesford T 2

Fine work by Harvey once again saw him break clear down the right and his ball in was picked up by MacPherson who shifted it onto his right-foot before scoring.

Three minutes later and Town were indebted to goalkeeper Dan Crane as he raced quickly from his line to snuff out any opportunity of a quick equaliser for the home side.

Hednesford's Rey, Durrell and Michael Lennon all went close.

Blyth Spartans: Grant, Utterson, Kendrick, Hodgson (Blandford 69), Buchanan, Mellish, Mason, Vipond, Farrell, Airey (Davis 66), Dale. Subs not used: Jones, King, Hunter

Hednesford Town: Crane, Disney, Campion, Barnes (Bailey 70), Francis, Macpherson, Osborne (Melbourne 83), Durrell, Harvey (Lennon 71), Rey, Woolfe. Subs not used: O'Connor, Dunleavy

Attendance: 325.

No prizes for guessing which player out of Spartans keeper Conor Grant and Hednesford's Neil Harvey is happy with his lot after the latter's goal from six yards helped to take the visitors to three points at Croft Park

Confidence boost for hockey girls

CANNOCK Ladies Hockey Club had a busy Bank Holiday weekend of games before the Investec Conference League season.

A 1-1 draw and a 2-0 win over Gloucester and Oxford Brookes respectively was a positive start to the weekend, bringing much-needed confidence back.

A 1-0 loss to Stourport on Sunday after a slow start was followed by a confident 4-1 win over Doncaster with goals coming from both short corners and open play.

The matches gave both second XI and junior players valuable pitch time with the first team squad.

The team now look forward to Club Day on Saturday (1-4pm) open to xisting and any new players.

Club gets ready for milestone campaign

BURNTWOOD RUFC completes its pre-season preparations on Saturday by taking two squads to Pershore.

The club has held an internal game plus trial matches against Uttoxeter and Stafford.

Next week Burntwood begins life back in Midlands Three West North with a trip to Edwardians before the first home league match on September 15 against Yardley & District – both matches kicking off at 3pm.

The club begins the new campaign with Graham MacDonald as director of rugby, overseeing coaching.

There are also new captains. Graham Shelley stands down as first XV skipper and is replaced by prop forward Rob Cartwright. John Haire leads the seconds and Andy Dodd the thirds.

It is 40 years since Burntwood launched in November 1972, and events will be held to mark the occasion including a dinner, reunion, guest invitation match plus a tour to Abercarn, South Wales in April – the venue for the club's first tour.

The club's mini/youth section offers youngsters from six to 16 the chance to play rugby. There is spare capacity at all levels. Call 07842 910064 or e-mail julia grundy@hotmail.co.uk

Two-man advantage proves key

Kenilworth Town 3
Rugeley Rangers 0

NINE-MAN Rugeley conceded two late goals to produce a Midlands Combination Division Two scoreline which flattered the home side.

By that time the visitors were down to nine players through injury.

Rugeley had welcomed back both Joe Murphy and Jack Turner for what turned out to be a closely-fought game. Kenilworth went ahead early in the second half, but Rugeley pressed for the equaliser with half-chances falling to both Dave Hopwood and Murphy.

The late goals meant another frustrating league outcome for Rangers, but an encouraging performance nonetheless in which Adam Hill impressed.

Rain-hit Yelloly gears up to fourth

STAFFORDSHIRE racing driver Nick Yelloly moved up to fourth in the Formula Renault 3.5 championship with just three rounds to go.

Yelloly put in two strong drives through the field at Silverstone. The MSA Team UK driver endured a tough qualifying session on Saturday, struggling with oversteer and placing 16th.

But rain in the race itself claimed several victims – all the field had started on slick tyres – while an unfazed Yelloly passed four cars on the first lap.

The race was eventually red-flagged to recover cars and Yelloly lined up seventh for a restart behind the safety car. He fought his way up to finish fourth.

Further qualifying struggles meant a starting place of 16th again for round two and a pool of water in front of his grid spot saw Yelloly get away poorly and fall to 18th.

However, a string of passes got him up to eighth. But while contesting sixth spot he was pushed wide onto the grass and then clipped by another car into a spin so settled for eighth.

"The conditions were really tricky as parts of the track were quite dry and other parts had rivers over them which meant we were aquaplaning everywhere," he said. "We now head to the Hungaroring (September 15) in fourth place."

Finals fun at T20 cricket

ALL the fun of T20 cricket is expected on Sunday when Cannock CC host the Birmingham League finals.

Tamworth, Walsall, Wolverhampton and Ombersley will battle it out.

And that means a return of Tamworth's Mike Talbot to the Cannock club for the first time since he left in 2010.

Also back is prolific batsman Stuart Burrows, who played in the Premier League winning team of 2000.

Premier League leaders Walsall may well start favourites and will have former Cannock players Josh Bowker and David Powles making a return.

Wolverhampton face Walsall at 10am while the other two sides line up at 1pm with the final at 4.15pm.

Admission is £2 with food and drink available all day.

Boxer Egan eyes football return

by Craig Birch

CANNOCK'S Dave Egan could return to playing football for Chasetown after his double mission as a professional boxer is completed at the end of next month.

Egan is down to fight at the HMV Institute in Birmingham – formerly Digbeth Civic Hall – a week on Saturday, where he will be pitted against Welshman Joe Smith.

Barring complications, the 29-year-old welterweight will then take his spot at Wolverhampton Civic Hall after being added to the bill on Friday, September 28.

A nagging shoulder injury and the possibility of bloodshed in the first fight is a factor, which could prevent him boxing at the Civic as he originally planned.

But, should it all go well, Egan could fight twice and then return to Chasetown, where he played alongside current boss Craig Harris.

Egan, who played 238 games and captained the Scholars over two spells in nine years, hung up his boots at the end of the 2010-11 season and swapped them for gloves. But, following Harris' arrival at the club this summer, the midfielder has signed up as a player on the understanding that boxing comes first. He said: "As soon as 'Chopper' got the job, he was straight on phone to me and I would love to play for him. He was the best captain ever and I was his apprentice.

"He knows how dedicated I am to my boxing, I think he's hoping I get knocked out and it makes me want to go back to playing football!

"But he's convinced me to start training with them and convinced me to sign. Between fights, maybe I can play a few games.

"In a few weeks time, you may see me back in a Chasetown shirt."

DERBY DRAMA AS POINTS ARE SHARED

HEDNESFORD TOWN maintained their unbeaten start to the season – but only just, in a memorable Staffordshire derby fixture against local rivals Stafford Rangers.

Elliott Durrell tucked away a penalty to put the Pitmen ahead only for Rangers to equalise and then go ahead from the spot with three minutes left, writes Scott Smith.

But in time added on, Nathan Woolfe curled in a deflected shot to salvage an Evo-Stik Northern Premier point.

Stafford R 2

It was a dramatic conclusion to a game which had also seen Hednesford reduced to 10 men with the dismissal of Jamey Osborne.

It was the visitors who started the better and they almost found a way through after just 60 seconds when Turner's free-kick drifted into the box and narrowly wide of the post.

The rest of the half saw both sides cancel each other out as they struggled to gain any real foothold on the game. Town did have a goal disallowed right at the end of the first period, however the whistle had long gone for a foul before Aaron Rey had slotted home.

Responded

The second half started in a lively fashion and Hednesford were indebted to goalkeeper Dan Crane for keeping the scores level.

Town took the lead in the 50th minute as they were awarded a penalty following a foul on Osborne. Durrell stepped up and after some delaying tactics from the Rangers players he sent Read the wrong way to make it 1-0 to Town.

Things went from bad to worse for Stafford soon after as they saw defender Johnson carried off with a nasty looking leg injury which delayed the game for some five minutes, before drawing level in the 62nd minute. A Turner corner was headed home by an unmarked Quinn.

As the game wore on it looked as if both sides were starting to settle for a 1-1 draw, however things suddenly exploded into life in the 84th minute. Both Osborne and Stafford defender Luke George lunged in for a loose ball and Osborne was adjudged to have gone in two-footed and received a straight red card.

With just three minutes of normal time remaining the visitors edged in front as Quinn broke into the area and was brought down by Neil Harvey and scored from the penalty spot.

As the game entered the third of five added minutes there was one last twist as Hednesford levelled. A ball across the box from Michael Lennon fell to Woolfe who scored.

Hednesford Town: Crane, Disney (O'Connor 87), Campion, Bailey, Franics, Macpherson, Osborne, Durrell, Harvey, Rey (Lennon 69), Woolfe. Subs not used: Clarke, Melbourne, Watkis.

Stafford Rangers: Read, George, Brown, Walshe (Espley 77), Johnson (Dicker 56), Carr, Turner, Downes, Quinn, Street (Everall 85), Kasiama. Subs not used: Heler, Wood.

Attendance: 920.

Fightback by Hayes but it's to no avail

Rocester 3 Heath Hayes 2

HAYES battled hard against high-flying Rocester, but once more crucial decisions went against them and this defeat anchors the side at the foot of the Baker Joiner Midland Alliance table.

Both teams adapted well to the rain-soaked pitch to produce a good, open game.

The home side went into the lead on 22 minutes when a long-range effort from Carl Allen took a big deflection and ended up in the net.

They increased their lead 10 minutes later with a goal sparked by Jack Langston's deep cross from the right.

Chris Sterling's header was brilliantly saved by Hayes keeper Sam Hornsby, but Edwin Asante-Ahenkorah did well to turn in the rebound.

Sprawling

Hayes came out for the second half in a much more determined mood.

After a period of sustained pressure, they reduced the lead via a fine individual effort from Alex Roofe.

Dave Waple was then sent sprawling in the box by Chris McComisky but the referee saw nothing wrong with the challenge.

Not to be deterred, Hayes continued to take the game to their opponents and Dominic Coulson deservedly equalised with a fine strike from 20 yards.

But heartbreak was on its way for the visitors.

With 10 minutes remaining, Rocester earned a corner on the left and Ryan Grocott's kick was flicked on by Craig Holland for Asante-Ahenkorah to apply the finishing touch and give the home side victory.
